Heavy Damage as Fire Rages Through D.C. Motorcycle Store

Fire of undetermined origin gutted the Pit Stop motorcycle company on Mission Street in Daly City Monday night, causing an estimated $65,000 damage to contents alone, firemen reported.

Fire Chief Herb Ritzman said about 175 cycles were destroyed or damaged in the blaze, which was discovered shortly after 10 p.m. by the Pit Stop owner, Jack Van Voast.

Ritzman said 75 minibikes on a mezzanine of the old wood frame store were destroyed. About 100 standard-size cycles in the store were damaged to varying extent.

Some appeared salvageable, Ritzman said.

Van Voast had returned to the store shortly after 10 p.m. to make certain the building had been locked by employees at 9 p.m. and to put away the day's receipts.

He heard a "crackling noise" at the rear of the structure and upon investigating found the area in flames.

Van Voast's call to the fire department was one of several received by firemen within minutes after smoke began billowing from the back of the store.

Choking black smoke hung over the area and could be seen in residential districts some distance away.

Fed by gasoline, oils and rubber the flames licked through the rear three-quarters of the building, consuming shop equipment, cycles, parts and melting plastic helmets and aluminum.

Ritzman said the smoke was so thick when firemen arrived they "had trouble finding the base of the fire," hampered, also, because the old structure has been remodelled several times and a number of false ceilings delayed firemen's efforts to "get to the main source of the fire."

Traffic on Mission Street was re-routed by Daly City police onto Hillside Boulevard as over 20 men and five pieces of fire equipment were thrown in to battle the blaze, and the street was blocked.

Off-duty firemen were called to duty as a second alarm was sounded.

One fireman, Maurice Sciaroni, suffered a bad puncture wound in his foot when he stepped on a nail while battling the fire. He was treated at Mary's Help Hospital.

Ritzman said the damage estimate was for the contents only. No immediate figure on the structure loss was available, however the chief said he thought a major portion of the building would have to be razed.

Fire officials have yet to determine the cause of the blaze.

INTENSIVE SEARCH

Housewives Escape Rapist in Daly City

By FRANK LAPIERRE

All available police were thrown into an intensive search for a would-be rapist loose in Daly City Tuesday.

The man, known only as

"Tom," twice tried to rape housewives in the East section of the city during daylight hours Monday.

In one case he actually gained entry to an apartment building under false pretenses and ordered a pretty 23-year-old mother of a four-year-old boy to disrobe at knifepoint.

The child's constant crying apparently scared the rapist off before he could further harm the mother. She called police shortly after 11 a.m. and police laid out their dragnet.

Less than two hours before, a man answering the same description accosted another young mother walking along Hillside Boulevard and tried to drag her into his car.

He grabbed the woman around the waist and threatened to harm her with a knife he had concealed in his shirt sleeve if she did not cooperate with him.

She successfully broke away from him and called for help. Before police arrived, on the scene he had fled, possibly in a blue car, police said.

One of the victims of yesterday's attack is a sketch artist and drew a likeness of the suspect, for police. Copies were made and distributed to patrolmen throughout the area.

The rapist was described as a "Latin-type" about 5 foot 7 inches in height, between 155-200 pounds, wearing a yellow shirt, grey slacks and Scottish grain shoes.

The suspect is considered armed and dangerous and citizens are urged to use extreme caution if he is sighted.

Captain Dave Hansen requests that persons having information regarding this matter call 992-1225 or 992-4503 anytime.

RAPE suspect — This sketch was drawn by a Daly City housewife of her would-be assailant shortly after he forced his way into her apartment and tried to rape her yesterday. He is described as a "Latin-type," 5 feet, 7 inches, weighing between 155-200 pounds. The man is armed with a butcher knife. If you have seen this man call police at 992-1225 or 992-4503.

Blue-Ribbon Panel Urges Teacher Pay Compromise

'50-50 Split' Would Add $13,785 to Pay Package

By DON GRIERSON

Members of the "blue-ribbon fact-finding panel" appointed to make recommendations in the dispute between trustees and teachers of the Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City submitted their proposal Tuesday and representatives of the two opposing factions agreed to seek approval of the compromise.

The citizens' committee, headed by Mayor Bernard Lyetti, recommended a "50-50 split" of the difference between the board's salary proposal and the salary package sought by teachers.

The proposed compromise would add approximately $13,785 to the salary package offered by the board.

Jan Beekman, president of the Jefferson Classroom Teachers' Association, said she would recommend that the district's 460 teachers approve the proposal at a general membership meeting scheduled Tuesday afternoon.

Board Chairman Ed Tomasello also promised to seek ratification of the proposed compromise from the other trustees, provided the teachers endorsed the proposal at their Tuesday meeting.

If approved, the compromise arrangement will mark the end of 10 months' of salary negotiations in the district, and will terminate a dispute which precipitated a threat of a "mini-strike" work slowdown by the teachers.

The district attorney's office obtained a temporary restraining order against the teachers November 1 after they threatened to walk out of classrooms at the end of a 240-minute "minimum day."

Teachers later voted to defy the restraining order and proceed with the "mini-strike," but postponed the action after board members agreed to appoint the citizens' committee to make "non-binding" recommendations.

Child Dies In Stroller

A seven-month-old girl was killed at a busy South San Francisco corner on Friday as her mother wheeled her across the street in a stroller.

The tiny victim, Enid Ally Alvarez, of 117 A Street, South San Francisco, died from massive head injuries at Kaiser Hospital shortly after the accident.

Police said the mother was pushing the stroller across El Camino Real at an unmarked crossing about 7:50 p.m. when a car driven by Kenneth Alan Salmon, 26, of 2161 El Dorado Drive, Pacifica, hit the stroller.

The mother apparently spotted the car bearing down on them at the last minute and jumped clear, but was unable to pull the stroller out of the path of the car, police said.

Kaiser Plans New Hospital In South S.F.

South San Francisco is scheduled to receive a new hospital "sometime during the next four or five years" under an $80 million expansion program announced Monday by the Kaiser Foundation in Oakland.

A Kaiser spokesman said the new South San Francisco facility will be located on a 14.7-acre site on El Camino Real near Chestnut Avenue which the foundation purchased one year ago at a price of $750,000.

Spokesmen said no definite building plans for the new hospital have been prepared, but general plans call for "a hospital of modest size, roughly 100 beds."

The new facility will be designed in a manner to allow expansion with "relative ease," the hospital officials said.

No plans have been announced for disposal of the present Kaiser Hospital at Spruce and Grand Avenue in South San Francisco.

Spokesmen said a "number of possible alternatives" for the old building will be considered. "The four-or-five-year time schedule announced for the general Bay Area expansion program is as specific as we can be at the present in pinpointing the building schedule for the South San Francisco facility."

Homeowners File Suit On Flooding

A hefty lawsuit—146 pages long and weighing nearly two pounds — was filed in Superior Court Friday on behalf of the owners of 29 homes in the Francisco Terrace subdivision in South San Francisco.

The suit asks a total of $387,000 for flood damage to land and houses, plus unspecified amounts for damage to contents of the homes.

The big lawsuit, filed by attorneys John Sherman and Alan Haverly, lists 58 "causes of action," two for each property. The damages are sought for "inverse condemnation," that is, a claim that damage because of public construction amounted to a taking of property without compensation, and for negligence. Defendants are the cities of South San Francisco, Daly City, San Bruno and Colma, the County of San Mateo and the County Flood Control District. All are participants in the Colma Creek Flood Control Zone, which is directly involved.

The plaintiffs contend that inadequate drainage facilities and improper construction at the place where the Spruce Avenue culvert connects with Colma Creek are responsible for the floods that devastated the area last January.

Judge, Assistant District Attorney Talk to Crime Prevention Group

North County Municipal Judge F. Jose De Larios and deputy district attorney William Lanham last week discussed with the San Bruno Crime Prevention Committee the question of judicial leniency and the need for a responsive public.

Judge De Larios distinguished between judicial leniency and judicial discretion. He explained that though a judge has discretion in some matters, he has none in others, emphasizing that a jurist must follow the law as he finds it, and that every case must be taken on its individual merits.

Speaking towards a criticism by committee members that for a specific type of crime varied decisions are handed down, Judge De Larios pointed out that in actuality the commission of every crime is different, even though it may be the same crime in the penal code.

Both De Larios and Lanham declared that much of the criticism of courts expressed by the public has not distinguished between trial and appellate courts.

They agreed trial courts are doing their necessary jobs; that the decisions being complained of have been handed down by higher courts.

On court judicial leniency, a case was referred to as an example in which a jury—the "community"—set the penalty itself.

De Larios pointed out three types of leniency, though noting them not to be the only kinds: Sheer gutlessness, in which a judge doesn't want to look a defendant in the eyes and say, "You're going to jail;" mercy, when the jurist takes a defendant's family economic situation into consideration, for instance; and corruption, in which some profit might be involved and where the jurist might think of future votes and will not condemn or be too harsh, or might receive other considerations in return for leniency.

De Larios, however, emphasized that his descriptions on leniencies were not actualities, but mere possibilities, and that San Mateo County is free of this.

Lanham, who lives in Burlingame, suggested that more groups like the San Bruno unit are necessary to disseminate the proper kind of information to communities that official agencies are unable to do.

Asked whether or not he thought his agency could, or should, attempt to disseminate more information, Lanham replied that the agency is a creation of the public, and the public should exert its own influence and say, "get interested!"

It is not up to the agency, he said, to go out to the citizenry and say, "get interested!" Lanham told the committee he thought there should be coordination of efforts of similar groups to pass on information, such as a central coordinating body for all teen groups, and churches and other clubs and organizations that have some means of being tied together. (Please See Page 2, Column 2)

He Learned Painful Way That Car Wasn't Stolen

It was a case of mistaken identity that propelled Doelger Company Special Officer Kurt Koch into the hospital Saturday with abrasions, bruises and a six-inch laceration on his throat.

Koch was patrolling the Westlake Shopping Center area on his three-wheeler when he spotted two young men climb into one of the Doelger company's black patrol cars and drive off.

Koch started after them. As he tried to close the gap between the patrol car and his motorcycle a huge truck cut in front of him and Koch smashed into its side.

The patrol car went steadily on its way.

It wasn't until later, after the medics got through patching Patrolman Koch together, that he learned the company had sold the car to the two young operators the day before.

Pacifica Holiday Festival Is Set at Oceana High School

The Pacifica Holiday Festival is planned for December 14 and 15. The Festival, which is a combination of the Christmas Do-It-Yourself Show and a community fair, will be held at Oceana High School in the cafeteria.

Any organizations or individuals who have holiday decoration or gift ideas can bring them to display for the community. In addition to the craft displays there will be art-in-action demonstrations of craft and holiday ideas, Santa Claus for the children and a children's exhibit area.

Organizations in the community will be participating in the Christmas Tree Lane portion of the festival. Each organization will decorate a tree with ornaments made or decorated by members of the club. These trees will be on display at the show.

Another special feature of the Festival will be the Holiday Auction, in which any individual displaying an item in the show can auction it off on Sunday afternoon. Cost of the items will vary depending on the cost of the materials, in the gift or decoration piece.

Playground programs being conducted by the Park, Beach and Recreation Department begin closing Wednesday at 5 p.m. instead of 5:30 p.m. The earlier closing is due to the time change and the early darkness.

Those playgrounds being affected by the change in closing time are Westview, Fairmont, Pacific Manor, Sharp Park, Vallemar, Ortega, Sanchez, Linda Mar, and Pedro Valley playgrounds.

The Pacifica Sea Lions, sponsored by the Park, Beach and Recreation Department, are back in action for the month of November. Try-outs for the team have been scheduled for Friday, November 22, at the Terra Nova Pool.

The J. Teens' annual Halloween Dance, sponsored by the Park, Beach and Recreation Department, which was held at Fairmont School, was termed a huge success with over 120 participating.

Crime Prevention Unit Hears Judge

with crime prevention information channeled through them.

Both De Larios and Lanham noted that any time an absolute and sincere interest by the public is shown, judges try to reflect the feelings of the community.

Courts are responsive to the community, De Larios explained that courts on responsive to the community, if it knows what the community wants.

He said, speaking of drunken driving cases for instance that if he received numerous responsible letters reflecting a belief that harsher sentences should be meted first offenders, he would make every effort to answer and explain his own reasoning.

Then, if these people again responded, understanding his position, and the feeling remained that the community would benefit from harsher sentences, it would influence him somewhat, De Larios said.

He cautioned, however, that there are not going to be court decisions or judgments made strictly because a lot of people want it.

He said judges should be responsive.

De Larios explained that it is difficult for judges to be a part of the community, like someone else is a part, though he has attempted to be as active in as many organizations as possible, simply to know what is going on and what the community is thinking.

Lanham pointed out that if a community wants good law enforcement, it must pay for it. Well qualified, well educated policemen must be hired and then well-trained after they are on the job.

County Approves a Youth Bureau Center on Coast

County supervisors last week adopted a resolution of intention to enter into a joint service agreement to establish a Youth Center bureau in Pacifica as part of the county's war on juvenile delinquency.

Richard B. Hazel, a representative of the county juvenile probation department, explained that the state legislature has recently allocated $100,000 to be divided up between four counties to set up such centers as pilot programs in the fight against delinquency among youth. Such centers, he said, would serve both delinquent and delinquent prone juveniles before they get into serious difficulties.

The purpose of the state act, according to Hazel, is to allow public agencies to "pool" their resources. He said that Pacifica has been selected as the county's "target area."

Supervisor Robert St. Clair declared, "I assume that Pacifica was chosen as a target area because its beach area attracts many youths."

Hazel answered, however, that Pacifica has an exceptionally high delinquency rate and is responsible for about 10 per cent of the juvenile cases in the county. Among the other factors that caused Pacifica's selection, he said, was its already "exceptionally high tax rate."

Supervisor Jean Fassler commented, "I am very enthusiastic about this. It is a real step forward to help our young people before they enter the area of the juvenile courts."

Hazel reported the project already has been approved by Pacifica Police Chief Neal Treman, Chief Probation Officer

Plan Social Justice Unit In N. County

Catholics in three South San Francisco parishes are forming a social justice co-ordinating committee. Members are from the social justice committee of All Souls, Mater Dolorosa and St. Veronica parishes.

These committees aim to inform Catholics of current social problems and to involve them in their correction, according to Mrs. Robert M. Harnett of St. Veronica's Parish.

Efforts in these educational endeavors will be combined during the coming year to reach a greater number of citizens in the North County, according to Mrs. Harnett.

"Poverty in South San Francisco?" will be the first program presented by the new committee November 14, at St. Veronica's cafeteria in Alida Way.

Mrs. Pat Beckman, chairman of St. Veronica's social justice committee, was named temporary chairman of the co-ordinating committee.

Real Estate Teacher Is Sued

A South San Francisco couple have filed suit in Superior Court for recovery of money invested in a real estate deal they say went sour.

The plaintiffs, Eddie and Florence Lodigiani, state that they agreed to invest $8,400 in the venture on the advice of the defendant, Robert C. Moore, a real estate broker who taught a class in real estate at College of San Mateo in which Mrs. Lodigiani was a student. That was in May of 1965.

Because of the teacher-student relationship, the suit states, the Lodigianis "reposed great trust and confidence in the honesty, integrity and expertise" of the defendant.

Moore told them, according to the suit, that he was a general partner in the ownership of some land in San Jose upon which construction of an apartment house would start within a month. The plaintiffs were assured, they state, that their investment was safe and that they could "reasonably expect to triple their investment."

The assurance, the suit states, were false and Moore "intended to use said funds for his own personal benefit and gain." The plaintiffs said they did not learn of the "fraudulent nature" of the defendant's claims until July of this year. They said the apartment house still had not been built and Moore told them that he was waiting for "favorable market conditions." They ask for return of the $8,400, plus $10,000 exemplary damages.

Cigarettes D.C. Loot

Safeway store officials in Daly City were still counting their loss from a weekend burglary which hit the St. Francis Square food store Saturday.

First estimates disclosed the loss was confined to several large cases of cigarettes.

The burglars gained entry to the supermarket by forcing their way through a rooftop vent and lowering themselves into the main section of the store, police said.

Lt. Phil LaBruzzi said the theft was apparently carried out by "more than one" burglar.

Store Found Fair, CHRC Panel Says

Complaints of racial discrimination in employment practices at the Montgomery Ward store in the Serramonte Shopping Center in Daly City were dismissed Thursday by the County Human Relations Commission.

Stuart Leeb, chairman of a special committee named to investigate, told his fellow commissioners that his group found a lack of communication between the store and the minority community.

The commission accepted Leeb's recommendation that talks be held to try to improve the situation and carried the recommendation a big step further — extending the talks to include the entire 56-store shopping center.

The action was taken on the motion of member Harry Bremond, who said the commission should meet with the merchant association "to develop an affirmative equal opportunity hiring policy for all stores in Serramonte." By affirmative, Bremond explained, he meant that the stores should go out into the community and actively seek minority employees.

The motion was adopted unanimously.

Another member, Dr. Robert Bullock, suggested that the stores develop in-service training programs.

"I no longer buy the excuse that they don't hire minorities because there are no qualified minority people," he declared.

Leeb told the commission that Montgomery Ward officials acknowledged that they had made no special efforts to hire minority employees but that their main concern was in getting the new store established. Now that the store is established, Leeb said, "they want to assure the community that their interest is in establishing a fair employment practice."

Leeb offered to meet with concerned representatives to get the Montgomery Ward program going. The first meeting has been scheduled for November 12, with Leeb meeting with R. J. Brant of Montgomery Ward, and the Rev. Howard Bryant, Daly City civil rights leader.

Member Edward Morgan said the Rev. Bryant had told him that the committee's investigation had done "great good" and that he felt the continuing talks will "open more doors."

Commenting on the decision to seek the establishment of a positive hiring program for the entire shopping center, Morgan asserted that "the real job of this commission should not be to go around putting out fires, but to prevent fires."

S. Bruno Holds 4 On 'Pot' Charges

Three college students and a "babysitter" were arrested on marijuana charges Thursday after San Bruno police received an anonymous phone call that sent them to a Fleetwood Drive address.

Booked by police were: Frank C. Bender, 26, a College of San Mateo student who gave his address as Second Avenue, Miramar.

Joan E. Sharp, 23, 2250 Fleetwood Drive, a student at San Francisco City College.

Myrtle P. Castleberry, 22, 2250 Fleetwood, who said she was a babysitter for the Sharp woman.

Kenneth Palmer Van Velsor, 24, of 32 Hillcrest Drive, Daly City, a student at San Francisco State College.

Patrolman Thomas Kaufman said the police department received a call from an unknown citizen at 8:50 p.m. asserting a belief that adults and juveniles were in the house at 2250 Fleetwood Drive smoking marijuana.

Kaufman and Patrolman Bill Malloy responded to that address, and were met at the door by Bender. The officers were talking with Bender, Kaufman said, when Joan E. Sharp came to the door. The patrolmen were admitted to the house, and while officer Malloy was talking to the pair Kaufman noticed a box on the living room floor.

Kaufman said he saw in the container a green, vegetable-type material that he thought to be marijuana.

Further investigation into the contents of the box disclosed a scale, cigarette papers and unidentified pills, Kaufman said.

The couple was placed under arrest then, and the officers searched the house.

Kaufman said 14 lids of marijuana, two partial lids, 10 marijuana cigarettes, a partially-smoked marijuana cigarette, a home-made water pipe and another smoking pipe with marijuana residue in it were found in various locations in the three bedroom house.

Additionally, Kaufman said, "two or three" bags of loose marijuana leaves, two planter boxes and one pot containing dried marijuana plants, cigarette rolling machines and "numerous" imported cigarette papers were confiscated.

While the police were searching the house, Myrtle Castleberry entered the home and was subsequently arrested, as was Van Velsor when he arrived later.

Both women were charged with possession of marijuana for sale, cultivation of marijuana, possession of instruments to smoke marijuana and marijuana possession.

The two men were booked on charges of visiting a place where marijuana was being used, Kaufman said.

AIR DEFENSE

FT. BLISS, Tex. — Second Lieutenant Gaylord R. Pease, 24, son of Mrs. Laura G. Pease, 843 Dell Road, Pacifica, completed the air defense artillery officer basic course Sept. 30 at the Army Air Defense School, Ft. Bliss, Tex. During the nine-week course, he was trained in air defense artillery operations and tactics with a major portion of his studies devoted to the Nike-Hercules missile system.

Bruno Cab Driver Victim Of Attack

A Yellow Cab driver was beaten and robbed Friday night after he responded to a call for his services in San Mateo.

Louis Ardito, 49, 201 Acacia, San Bruno, told police that he received a call at about 8:03 p.m. and went to 218 North Fremont. When he got there, after honking his horn, a young Negro wearing a Halloween mask told him, "This is a holdup."

The suspect then repeated that he wanted the victim's money and struck the driver with a club.

Another suspect then opened the passenger door and began striking the victim with a club.

Ardito handed over his wallet and managed to drive away. He was not seriously hurt.

He estimated that there was about $24 in his wallet along with some valuable papers.

Ardito told officers that he thought there might have been two more youths involved in the robbery.

It was thought that the suspects had telephoned for the cab and then waited across the street from 218 North Fremont in the Eastside park.

Police are investigating.

Wife Accidentally Shoots Husband

A Daly City wife accidentally shot her husband in the stomach Wednesday as the couple were "horsing around" with a loaded .22 caliber revolver.

Police said Jannett J. Smith, 27, pointed the loaded weapon at her 32-year-old husband, Isaiah, as he stood in the doorway of the couple's bedroom at 151 Alexander Street and squeezed the trigger. The bullet hit the husband in the abdomen and he collapsed on the bed.

He was rushed to Mary's Help Hospital and was reported in satisfactory condition in the hospital's intensive care unit this morning.

Police called the shooting accidental.

The gun had been purchased several months ago and was kept in a bedside stand. When the victim came home about 9 p.m. the wife jokingly pointed the weapon at him and began pulling the trigger, police said.

CASH TAKEN

Glenn A. Ausberger of 1210 Claremont Drive reported to San Bruno police the theft of $40 from his bedroom on Wednesday. Entry was gained through a garage door.

D.C. Couple Fly To Son's Bedside

The volunteer efforts of a young man had been flown to the 106th General Hospital at Yokohama where doctors described his condition as very serious with one side of his body paralyzed.

Congressman McCloskey explained the problems: "The Van Aken had no passports, no visas, no plane reservations, no readily available funds, and the necessary government offices and their bank were all closed on Saturday."

However, a phone call from the congressman's office explaining the situation to S. M. Jeppson, agent in charge of the Passport Office, resulted in Jeppson opening the San Francisco Federal Building and issuing the passports. The Japanese Consulate was also re-opened by Fred Nishioka and the necessary visas were obtained.

A friend provided money for plane tickets and expenses. Pan American Passenger Service Agent Hal Hagen then confirmed space on the Sunday morning flight 848, and the Van Aken was on their way less than 24 hours after the initial call to the congressman's office.

The airline arranged for transportation from Tokyo airport and hotel accommodations near the army hospital. A cable received next day confirmed that Mr. and Mrs. Van Aken were with their son.

Van Aken is a Daly City bus driver and veteran of World War II. The couple has three other children, one of whom is serving in the army at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Commissioners are expected to act upon the zoning request, submitted by representatives of the estate of Rose Giannini, at their regular meeting.

A similar request to rezone the property was denied by the planning commission in 1965.

The current rezoning application has the approval of City Planner Daniel Pass, who recommended adoption "this week on grounds additional apartments in the area would help the city 'meet its housing needs.'"

The application was denied in 1965 on grounds the neighborhood, Sunshine Gardens, "had nearly reached its minimum holding capacity of 4,600 persons."

The commission felt in 1965 that increase in the neighborhood's "apartment-house potential" would eventually force the area's population above the maximum holding capacity cited by the general plan in effect at that time.

However, Pass noted that a population density higher than the 1965 recommendations is "now indicated" for the neighborhood under current regional plans.

Survivors include his widow Lucy, a son, John Soto, San Francisco; Edward Soto, Pacifica, and Robert G. Soto, Concord; one sister, Mrs. Hazel Bazzani, Pacifica.

ROSALIE GRASON

Funeral services were held Tuesday from Nauman and Lincoln Chapel by the Sea for Rosalie Grason, 22, of Pacifica, who died November 8 in San Francisco.

A requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's Catholic Church, and burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

A native of Burbank, she was a resident of San Mateo County for about 10 years. She was employed as a nurse at Hampshire Convalescent Hospital in San Francisco.

Survivors include a son, Robert Meteder, Hawaii; mother, Mrs. Rose Marie Grason, Pacifica; three brothers, David, Michael and Kenneth Grason, and a sister, Carolyn Grason, all of Pacifica.

Three Commerce Chambers Concerned By Jaycee Drive

The Chambers of Commerce who stage the fund-raising programs for the Jaycees, continue to use the Junior Chamber of Commerce name, however, as it apparently opens the door to a more successful fund solicitation.

The problem arises, they report, when the telephone solicitation operators say the event is sponsored by the "Junior Chamber of Commerce" of each city.

"There is no Junior Chamber of Commerce," notes Millbrae Chamber Mgr. Walter Hart. "The name of that organization was changed several years ago to avoid confusion with the established Chambers of Commerce."

Outside promoters, he said, who stage the fund-raising programs for the Jaycees, continue to use the Junior Chamber of Commerce name, however, as it apparently opens the door to a more successful fund solicitation.

South San Francisco Chamber Mgr. John Flynn noted, "We asked our police department to check out the solicitation as one of our member business firms have been called upon by individuals."

Larry Mobley, manager of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, commented that his office has received many telephone calls asking whether the solicitation is a program of the Chamber of Commerce.

One of the chamber directors is also on the executive committee of the San Mateo County Jaycees.

Better Business Bureau and claimed that they have received several calls on the solicitation. "We don't object to the purpose of the Christmas Variety Show ticket solicitation," notes Mobley, as the proceeds will go toward providing Christmas clothing gifts for needy students in this area.

Our concern is in the method of selling the tickets whereby an outside promoter stages the entire fund-raising solicitation and gives the Jaycees a percentage of the revenue.

"This percentage, however," Mobley asserted, is less than the amount carried away by the promoters. It's an easy way to raise funds for local organizations but one which the chambers in Millbrae, San Bruno and South San Francisco do not endorse."

Vision Tests For Children In Pacifica

Coastside Region Red Cross has scheduled two free sessions of vision screening for children from three to five years of age.

Screening, which takes only a few minutes and is helpful in detecting signs of imbalance in the vision of pre-schoolers, will be given from 9:15 a.m. through

On November 13, screening will be presented in the Sharp Park area, at the Pacific Baptist Church, 2070 Francisco.

On November 14, screening will be given at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 533 Hickey Boulevard. Mrs. Betty Robinson should be called for advance appointments.

The Red Cross presents this community service in cooperation with the Northern California Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

However, a phone call from the congressman's office explaining the situation to S. M. Jeppson, agent in charge of the Passport Office, resulted in Jeppson opening the San Francisco Federal Building and issuing the passports. The Japanese Consulate was also re-opened by Fred Nishioka and the necessary visas were obtained.

A friend provided money for plane tickets and expenses. Pan American Passenger Service Agent Hal Hagen then confirmed space on the Sunday morning flight 848, and the Van Aken was on their way less than 24 hours after the initial call to the congressman's office.

The airline arranged for transportation from Tokyo airport and hotel accommodations near the army hospital. A cable received next day confirmed that Mr. and Mrs. Van Aken were with their son.

Van Aken is a Daly City bus driver and veteran of World War II. The couple has three other children, one of whom is serving in the army at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Commissioners are expected to act upon the zoning request, submitted by representatives of the estate of Rose Giannini, at their regular meeting.

A similar request to rezone the property was denied by the planning commission in 1965.

The current rezoning application has the approval of City Planner Daniel Pass, who recommended adoption "this week on grounds additional apartments in the area would help the city 'meet its housing needs.'"

The application was denied in 1965 on grounds the neighborhood, Sunshine Gardens, "had nearly reached its minimum holding capacity of 4,600 persons."

The commission felt in 1965 that increase in the neighborhood's "apartment-house potential" would eventually force the area's population above the maximum holding capacity cited by the general plan in effect at that time.

However, Pass noted that a population density higher than the 1965 recommendations is "now indicated" for the neighborhood under current regional plans.

New Officers Installed By Daly City-Colma Chamber

More than 150 persons attended the Saturday night Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce Installation Dinner at the Olympic Country Club at Lake-side.

Jefferson Union High School superintendent and past chamber president, Edward Morgan, acted as emcee for the event.

Included in the long list of distinguished guests was Assemblyman Leo Ryan, county supervisor Jean Fassler, municipal judge Charles Becker and Colma vice mayor Raymond J. Ottoboni.

Daly City Mayor Bernard Ly-cett, also a past president of the chamber, praised outgoing chamber president Don Monson for his accomplishments during the past year and said the city owed him a debt of gratitude for the many hours he spent on be-half of the chamber.

Lycett introduced several city officials attending the installa-tion, including Mrs. Anna Ohlen-dorf (city clerk), city manager Edward Frank, city treasurer Joseph Lewkowitz, and police chief Roland Petrocchi, along with councilmen Edward Den-nis, Michael DeBernard, and Tony Giamonna.

Monson, before turning the gavel over to newly elected president Elio Fontana, gave the highlights of the 1957-68 chamber year.

The duty of installing Fontana was left to past president and chamber director U. R. "Jack" Kendree, after which Fontana undertook the duty of installing the new board of directors and officers of the organization.

Thursday, Fontana is expect-ed to outline his program for the coming year during the di-

Four Escape Burning Home Early Monday in San Bruno

A "cracking noise" awakened James H. Frisbie in the master bedroom of his home at 547 Elm Avenue, San Bruno, early Mon-day and he was able to alert his family minutes before flame, toxic smoke and superheated air spread from his burning ga-rage.

At about the same time, a neighbor called San Bruno fire-men, who found upon their ar-rival shortly after 3:40 a.m. flames licking out from the large overhead front door and a side door of the garage.

The firemen could see the blaze soon after leaving Central fire station on El Camino Real, about three blocks from Elm Avenue.

Frisbie told firemen he heard a "cracking noise" from the ga-rage, above which was the mas-ter bedroom in which the Fris-bies were sleeping at the time.

He said he alerted his wife, his 20-year-old son William and 12-year-old daughter, Debra, after discovering the downstairs ablaze.

William left the house from his ground-level bedroom win-dow, while the others made their way downstairs and out to safety through the front door — apparently only moments before dense, toxic smoke, flame and supercharged air began filling the dining room and living room of the home.

A fire department spokesman said that though sheetrock kept the flames from spreading through the ceiling to the mas-ter bedroom and through the walls to the dining room adjoin-ing the garage, the fire burned its way to the other areas through an inside garage door.

The spokesman said that in his opinion the Frisbies did not have much time to get out.

"It could have been a real tragedy in a few more min-utes," the fireman thought.

The blaze was "going pretty good," and had knocked out all electricity by the time firemen arrived. Frisbie's electric clock had stopped at 3:30 a.m., and the fire department got the call some ten minutes later.

Firemen said the fire started in the Frisbie garage, but the exact location there, and the cause, have not yet been deter-mined.

An unofficial estimate of dam-age was set at about $15,000 by throughout.

SSF Honors Go To Disanto

A testimonial dinner spon-sored by the Chamber of Com-merce will be Thursday at the South San Francisco Elks Lodge to honor Anthony Disanto, re-tiring manager of the South San Francisco Bank of America. Dis-anto, also vice president of the bank, will retire early next year after 46 years of service.

No-host cocktails will be served starting at 7 with dinner following at 8. Only 300 seats are available and tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations can be made through the Chamber office at 400 Grand Avenue. Tickets will be sent by return mail or may be picked up at the office.

Waves Capsize Craft, S.F. Man Is Washed Overboard

A San Francisco man was washed overboard and drowned Sunday when a huge wave near-ly capsized the cabin cruiser he was fishing from off Thornton Beach in Daly City.

James Vernon Spalding, 55, of 3579 Nineteenth Avenue, was pulled from the pounding surf by a police rescue squad less than an hour after he was re-ported knocked overboard while fishing with two friends.

Police found the 41-foot cru-is-er, the "Rita E," beached about a half mile from where Spald-ing's body was recovered. Aboard the small boat was own-er Edward Wayne Ellis, 454 Fortieth Avenue, San Francisco, and Michael Lee Holland, 22, an Army enlisted man assigned to Letterman General Hospital at the Presidio of San Francisco.

All three men had left the San Francisco Yacht Harbor early Sunday heading for the "Potato Patch," a favorite fishing spot of Ellis. But the trio became lost due to thick fog and started heading back toward the bay shortly after 3 p.m.

While Ellis and young Holland were inside the boat, Spalding was on deck securing the fish-ing poles when the sudden swell apparently caused him to lose his balance and he fell over-board into the heavy surf.

Efforts to find the victim in the surf and fog were futile and the boat was soon caught in the surf and driven onto the beach, police report.

Ellis was able to alert the Coast Guard by radio who in turn notified local rescue units.

CSM Students Assisting In Tutor Program

More than 130 students from College of San Mateo are participating in a program of volunteer tutoring in San Mateo County public schools under the auspices of the American National Red Cross and the CSM education department.

The program places junior college students in classrooms to assist teachers in almost any subject being taught in elementary and high schools. According to Marvin Alexander, CSM education instructor, the program's positive value is that it offers young people an opportunity to explore the career they may want to pursue.

It also helps them to decide whether or not they are suited for the role of classroom teacher.

Red Cross began the program seven years ago at the request of a teacher who felt the need for more comprehensive programs than those she was able to conduct during the regular classroom day. The program was adopted in the San Mateo elementary School District, then expanded to include all school districts in the county. Red Cross handles the assignments of volunteer aides to schools.

At the present time there are more applications in the Red Cross office than students available to fill them.

The volunteer aides assist teachers with classroom studies, special projects, field trips, special tutoring assignments.

Among the College of San Mateo students from the North County who are participating in this program are, by cities:

COLUMBIA — Robert Medina.
DALY CITY — Charlotte Levine, James Quibell, Kathleen Brown, Connie Shimada, Stephen Mayer.

HALF MOON BAY — Barbara S. Mulderick, Diane Troutman.

PACIFICA — Claudette Bohaty, Sue Dickerson, Valerie Wagner, Kathryn Sliger, Edward G. Talbot, Genie Vinje.

SAN BRUNO — Sherry Ann Harris, Ronald Landrum, Sandra Little, Marilyn Messer, Lillian Wereda, Richard Clevenger, Diane Morgan, Steven Orton, Pam Pardini, Donna LeBlanc.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO — Amylee Robertson, Avis Savery, Margaret Mary Clark, Phillip Dodds, Beth Noonan, Linda Panigada, Albert Reine.

Coast Spook House Proves 'Profitable'

Haunting an old Pacific Manor house has proven to be profitable.

The first annual Halloween Spook House has filled the Family Service Agency coffers by approximately $1200. These monies will be used to support the FSA Pacifica office located in Cabrillo Medical Center on Crespi Drive.

Under the supervision of Ray Saari, the FSA office staff counsels hundreds of Pacificans annually who need help in solving personal and family problems.

Agency's income is derived from client fees based on the individual's or family's income and ability to pay, gifts to the United Bay Area Crusade, memberships, and through contributions from individuals and from the FSA Auxiliaries in San Mateo County.

Pacifica Auxiliary to FSA was sponsor of the Halloween Spook House.

Mrs. Reginald Parrier was chairman of the project.

The Auxiliary was assisted by Terra Nova High School drama students, who haunted the house as monsters, ghosts and goblins, and also through the gifts of many of Pacifica's merchants.

Parents are urged to attend and express their opinions about the topic and its acceptability as a class room subject.

Dr. Kent has been associated with teaching on all levels including adult education, and is a director of both the Far West Laboratory for Educational Research and Development and the Bay Area Educational Research Service. These groups are working for an improved school curriculum.

Recollection Day Theme Is Chosen

TOMORROW will be observed as a Day of Recollection by the members of the Holy Angels' Parish Women's Guild and their friends, according to Mrs. William Holland.

Mrs. Edward Oliva, the first vice president, is the coordinator for the day-long affair which will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the parish hall. During the day the theme, "My Invisible Self," will be the focus of meditation. No advance reservations are necessary but persons planning to attend are asked to bring a bag lunch. Coffee and tea will be provided by the guild committee. The observance will end at approximately 2:30 p.m., Mrs. Holland indicated.

Next event on the guild calendar will be the annual Rummage Sale being chaired by Mrs. Robert Simon.

A wide selection of new and next to new items will be sold on Saturday, November 23 in the parish hall. Everyone is invited to attend and browse through the selection of goods being offered, Mrs. Holland said.

PLAN TO VISIT the First Congregational Church of San Francisco's annual bazaar for a bit of early Christmas shopping.

Mrs. Ida Stromback of Daly City is the publicity chairman for the sale which is being staged in the Plymouth Hall, Post and Mason streets in San Francisco, on Friday and Saturday.

In addition to a variety of items for personal use or Christmas giving, the bazaar will offer cafeteria service Friday evening and all day Saturday.

MEMBERS of the Ignation Guild have secured quite an array of unique and desirable items for their public Silent Auction and Cocktail Party which will be held on Saturday from 4 until 7 p.m. in the gym at St. Ignatius' High School.

Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, John Wayne, Michael Wayne, Willie Mays, Don Nabor, Don London, Herb Caen, and other notables have donated items which will be auctioned off by radio personality Jack Carney.

A new attraction of the sale will be a booth featuring Peanuts items to help mothers who are looking for clever knick knacks for Christmas giving.

According to Westlake's Mrs. Theodore Martin, the guild's publicity chairman, all proceeds are donated to the St. Ignatius' High School building fund.

EVERYONE IS THINKING of ways to help make preparing for Christmas a delightful experience and the members of the Mary's Help Hospital Guild are among those eager to help you prepare.

With the holiday season "just around a corner" it is time to think of holiday decorations and whatever your fancy you will no doubt be delighted with the unusual artistry of Christmas decor available at the guild's Boutique de Noel.

The Boutique will open with a preview, complete with champagne and refreshments November 21 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

According to Mrs. Evelyn Fitzgerald, the preview will afford the first opportunity to view and purchase elegant and imaginative Christmas decorations which have been hand created by Mrs. J. Arthur Sullivan and her committee.

There is no admission charge for the preview but interested guests are asked to confirm attendance by contacting Mrs. Sullivan (731-2027) or by calling the hospital (992-4000). Following the preview the boutique sale will continue in the lobby of the hospital on November 22, 23 and 24.

THE TENTH ANNUAL Aquatic Extravaganza presented by the 14-time National AAU Synchronized Swimming Champions, the San Francisco Merionettes, will be staged at the Balboa Park Pool, San Jose Avenue at Havelock Street in San Francisco on two successive weekends beginning this Friday evening at 8 p.m.

A dozen San Mateo County lasses will be among the 90 swimmers extraordinary who will swim their way through a unique water spectacular entitled Aquacade Americana.

MRS. BILL HATCHER, Mrs. Frank Nash, Mrs. Jim Myers, Mrs. Alexander Findlay, Mrs. Gene Cloud and Mrs. Ronald Shirley became members of the Pacifica Federated Women's Club in rites held last month in the Terra Nova High School multi-purpose room.

LOUANNE HEATH'S DATEBOOK

The ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Laurence Matheus, club president, and Mrs. Ernest Mattson, membership chairman.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday at 8 p.m.

POLISHING up the high notes and burnishing the lower tones are the members of the Daly City Community Chorus who are scheduled to make their next public appearance on November 21, in the Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland.

Mrs. Lorrie Smith reports that the chorus' performance at the Laguna Honda Home in San Francisco was warmly received and it was with an especially warm feeling of success that the membership followed the performance by trekking to Donna Bensen's home for cake, coffee and a songfest around her player piano.

With holiday music in the preparation stage, Mrs. Smith has issued an S.O.S. for some additional tenor voices. Anyone with a yen to harmonize and has a bit of talent is welcome to attend weekly rehearsals at the Westmoor Clubhouse Thursdays at 8 p.m. Guests or first timers, are asked to check in with chorus director, Dennis Desjardins, upon arrival but no previous arrangements are required.

THE NORTH COUNTY Choristers, sponsored by the Jefferson Adult High School presented their second fall show earlier this month at the Lutheran Service Men's Center in San Francisco, according to Patti Parks Stolz, director of the chorus.

Members are preparing for numerous Christmas appearances plus a proposed holiday television program.

Carol Bodine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Bodine of San Lorenzo, and Ed Crans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crans of South San Francisco, will be married November 30. The bride-elect, a graduate of Arroyo High School, is a student at the Los Angeles County School of Nursing. Her fiancé was graduated from El Camino High School and the College of San Mateo. The brother of Gerald and Jack Crans Jr., Ed now is a student at Humboldt State College.

THE POST'S Family Forum

Clubwomen Sets Meeting Dates

The first group will meet on Thursday at 8 p.m. then again on Friday at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Ernest Mattson, 1054 Park Pacifica Avenue.

The next meeting will be November 19 at 8 p.m. in the Multi-purpose room of Terra Nova High School.

San Simeon Honeymoon For North County Couple

Hearst Castle at San Simeon was the honeymoon destination of the former Jeanette Ann Meek and her husband, Gale Walter Strong. The couple was married recently at the Church of the Nazarene in San Bruno and received felicitations in the church social hall.

Jeanette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Meek of San Bruno, exchanged vows in a dress of white peau de soie with a bodice of re-embroidered lace and seed pearls and an A-line skirt. A double pearl crown caught her illusion veil.

Maria Maciel of Long Beach, the maid of honor, wore a gold gown trimmed in crocheted lace and gathered in the back with a bow. Judith Eileen Meek, her sister's bridesmaid, wore a forest green creation similar in design to that of the honor attendant.

Keith Strong stood as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mrs. Ruby Strong who came from Boise, Idaho for the rites. Ushers were Robert Blackburn and Bernd Simon, both of Redwood City.

The new matron was graduated from Capuchino High School and Pasadena College, and received her secondary teaching credential from San Francisco State College. She has two brothers, Robert Eugene Meek and Stephen Roy Meek, both of San Bruno. Gale attended high school in Meridian, Idaho and has lived in Redwood City for six years. He has a sister, Mrs. Eileen Martinson of Boise. The couple will live in Redwood City.

Less-Harrison Vow Recital In Millbrae

St. Dunstan's Catholic Church in Millbrae was the setting for the recent marriage of Margaret Ann Less and Richard Wayne Harrison.

The couple received guests at the El Rancho Restaurant in Millbrae and honeymooned in southern California. They are making their home in Davis where both are students at the University of California.

Margaret, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Less of Millbrae, was attended by Linda-Kislingbury as maid of honor. The bridesmaids included Laurie Kendall, Aileen Macaulay and Caroline Harrison. Denise Peters was the flower girl.

Wayne the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno, asked his brother, Mrs. Alfred Harrison of San Thomas Harrison, to be his best man. Ushers were Bruce Daily, Steve Woodside and Dave Hubin.

THE PAUL GALEAS (Nancy Ann Baffico)

Nancy A. Baffico, Paul Galea Wed

Six attendants preceded Nancy Ann Baffico to the altar of Holy Angels Catholic Church where she exchanged vows recently with Paul Charles Galea.

Barbara Ann Toering was maid of honor for Nancy, daughter of Mrs. Clarine Baffico of San Francisco and George Baffico Jr. Mrs. Wilmo Schutz was her sister's matron of honor and another sister, Sharon Baffico, shared bridesmaids' duties with Maria Galea, Paul's sister, and Elaine Roccas. They were dressed alike in yellow organza over taffeta. Lisa Semenero, the flower girl, also wore yellow organza.

The bride was dressed in an A-line creation of white organza over taffeta with ruffles at the sleeve cuffs, hemline, and skirt back. A headpiece of organza rose petals caught her illusion veil.

Paul, son of Mrs. James Galea of Daly City, asked his brother, Charles, to be his best man. Ushering duties were shared by Wilmo Schutz, Ray Grech, Gary Grech, and David Grech. David Semenero was the ring bearer.

The couple departed for a Southern California honeymoon destination after a reception at the Sons of Italy Hall in San Francisco.

Nancy attended Westmoor High School. Her husband also attended Westmoor and went on to the College of San Mateo.

Playboy Club Bash for Coast Jaycee Chapter

The Penthouse of the Playboy Club in San Francisco was the site of the Pacifica Jaycees First Annual Bash.

Nearly 50 couples from Pacifica and the surrounding community attended the Jaycee invitational affair.

The Pacifica Jaycees hosted the event to offer as token of their appreciation thanks to the people who had contributed their efforts to helping the Jaycees promote and develop the community of Pacifica.

A three course steak dinner was served by the beautiful Playboy Bunnies at 10 p.m. following the cocktail hour. The floorshow portion followed dinner with the current entertainers for that week.

One of the evening's highlights was the presentation of the Jaycee Exhausted Rooster award to 36 year old Jaycee, Frank Terranova, assistant principal of Oceana High School in Pacifica. The ritual was performed by the Exuberant Gizzard Bill Palmrose and his assistant, Dennis King, Past Jaycee President.

Among the Jaycee guests were Pacifica Mayor Nick Gust, City Council members Harlan Minshew and Dan Modena, past Pacifica Chamber of Commerce presidents Bernie Cohen and Mike Wyman, current president Bill Hammer and other civic leaders.

NELL NORTON

(Sugar 'n Spice)

Good morning, good cooks.

My calendar has a picture of a huge turkey with all the trimmings and a group of happy people gathered to enjoy it. Since the month is November I deduct that Thanksgiving time is almost here and it's about time for us to start talking about goodies for this big day. All this will come next week.

This week I am seeking a recipe for a fruitcake that uses raisins, dates and nuts, no candied fruits, for Mrs. Cullen, a loyal reader in Daly City. Since next week's column will be dedicated to Thanksgiving I will have my fruitcake column on the 27th. So if any of you good cooks have the recipe for this old fashioned type fruitcake to share with Mrs. Cullen, will you fire it right into the paper?

Rather than go into a long song and dance about errors in the copy I have a new method of correcting them. I simply repeat the recipe the following week. So when you see a repeat, you'll know why.

ALMOND-COCONUT-CORNFLAKE TWINKLES

One and one-third cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
Two-thirds cup sugar
2 unbeaten egg whites
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup crushed corn flakes
3/4 cup coconut

Sift together the one and one-third cups flour, one teaspoon baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon salt.

Cream the one-half cup butter. Gradually add the two-thirds cup sugar, creaming well. Blend in the two unbeaten egg whites, one-half teaspoon vanilla and one-fourth teaspoon almond extract, beat well. Add the sifted dry ingredients and the one cup crushed corn flakes and three-fourths cup coconut. Mix well.

Drop by rounded teaspoonsful onto greased baking sheets. Bake in 375-degree oven for 10 to 12 minutes, until golden brown.

All the newspapers are full of the doings of the next President and recently I read that Mr. Nixon favored meat loaf for dinner. It's nice to know that my tastes parallel those of the next president of the White House.

This meat loaf recipe makes a generous loaf and is delicious for sandwiches for lunch. The mixing and fixing should be started earlier in the day in order to let the loaf stand in the refrigerator a few hours ahead of baking.

MEAT LOAF

3 lbs. ground beef
2 eggs, well beaten
2 tbsp. chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 tbsp. melted butter
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
2 teaspoons salt

Break up the three pounds of ground beef in a large bowl. Combine the two well beaten eggs, two tablespoons chopped onion, one-half cup chopped green pepper, one cup soft bread crumbs, two tablespoons melted butter, one-fourth teaspoon black pepper and two teaspoons salt. Add to the meat and mix thoroughly but gently with a fork. Pack meat into greased 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Cover and let stand in refrigerator several hours. Bake in 400 degree oven, 1 1/4 hours. Serves 6 generously.

These fluffy filled potato shells make a very tasty accompaniment to our entree.

POTATOES ON THE HALF SHELL

6 medium baking potatoes
2 tbsp. butter
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup hot milk

Scrub potatoes and dry thoroughly. Rub well with butter or oil if a soft skin is desired. Bake in 400-degree oven for 60 minutes or until tender when tested with a fork.

Remove from oven and cut lengthwise into halves. Scoop out the insides, being careful not to break the skins. Mash thoroughly and add the two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper and one-fourth cup milk. Beat until fluffy. Pile mixture back into shells; do not smooth down the top. Return to hot oven and brown lightly on top. Serves 6 to 12, depending on what kind of appetites your family brings to the table.

When someone talks about cole slaw do you think "Cold cole slaw"? That's the way I usually think of it. But it is delicious served hot too, and I can recommend this method of serving it to you good cooks.

HOT SLAW

1 medium-sized green cabbage
6 slices bacon, coarsely chopped
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1/4 cup brown sugar, packed
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard

Shred the cabbage coarsely. Cook the six slices of bacon over low heat in a large skillet until crisp. Remove the bacon pieces. Add the one-half teaspoon-celery seed, one-fourth cup brown sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one-fourth cup vinegar and one-fourth teaspoon dry mustard to the bacon drippings. Mix and stir, until hot. Next add the shredded cabbage and toss until well coated with the hot dressing. Remove from heat and sprinkle with the bacon pieces.

Let's close with another recipe request. A reader is looking for a recipe for candied apples, with a cinnamon coating. The red spicy kind you buy at the circus. Do any of you GC's have this recipe?

PATTERNS AND COLOR

Many ultra-conservative people will always play it safe with ultra-conservative and colorless colors, but the young and the young-at-heart are surrounded by themselves with clearer and more lively colors and patterns.

In both carpet and vinyl tiles, patterns are the passport all the way from traditional to mod. Patterns, patterns, everywhere—geometric, plaids, animal motifs, paisleys, what-have-you—all burst forth in a colorful blaze with the slogan, "Let's fight drabness."

Paper, vinyl and fabric wallcoverings are showing more colorful patterns than ever before in overscaled florals, plaids and stripes, in both light and dark backgrounds.

Fabrics for upholstered pieces are also showing more clear, vivid colors and color combinations in both small and large patterns, aside from a wider range in solid colors.

Many designers believe that the increasing popularity of color television is a contributing factor to the more widespread use of both pattern and color in our daily living. But, regardless of the reasons, it's nice to live in this wonderful world of color.

To see new, colorful furnishings—and the more conservative things too—visit us.

Family Service Agency Sells Christmas Cards

Christmas cards designed and printed exclusively for the Family Service Agency of San Mateo County are now being sold by members of the Pacifica Auxiliary to FSA.

The cards were designed by Peninsula artist Connie Hegedus of Pacifica for the benefit of the Family Service Agency.

Two designs are available. Each is printed on heavy white stock and comes with a matching deckle-edge envelope.

The smaller card shows a serene angel in two shades of gold, overlaid by a cerise line drawing, floating in the sky as the star of Bethlehem proclaims the birth of the Prince of Peace. "NOEL" is imprinted in cerise inside this single fold card.

Children frolic in the snow, reflecting the wish for "HAPPY HOLIDAYS" printed in red inside the second larger card. The design is black, gray and white.

This is the first time a Christmas card project has been undertaken by the agency.

Over 4,000 of the initial printing of 10,000 cards have been sold. Approximately 50 per cent of the sales price will directly benefit the agency.

The agency, a member of the United Bay Area Crusade, has counseling offices in Pacifica, Burlingame, Daly City and Menlo Park.

By purchasing these cards individuals, families and businesses will be providing strength to families under stress through Family Service Agency's research and counseling, a spokesman said.

Minimum orders of 25 of either card may be placed with any member of the Pacifica Auxiliary or by calling Christmas card chairman Mrs. A. J. (Ruth) Horanzy at 755-4873. Cards also are on sale at Periwinkle Art Gallery on Palmetto Avenue in Sharp Park and at the Checkered Frog bookstore on Pedro Point.

Cards and envelopes may be imprinted at a small additional charge on orders placed prior to December 15.

'Weight Watchers' Meet Weekly at Mary's Help

Classes for the Weight Watchers of Northern California began at Mary's Help Hospital Monday.

Classes will be held on consecutive Mondays thereafter, and registration is open throughout this continuing program.

The Weight Watchers program, consisting of a carefully-planned eating program and regular attendance at weekly classes, is open for both men and women and is designed to enable the overweight person to reach a realistic weight goal and maintain that weight loss.

At a typical class, members hear a lecture by a carefully trained Weight Watchers lecturer — a successful graduate of the program — who is highly qualified to describe the Weight Watchers plan for weight reduction. The lecturer then asks for comments from members on their own progress.

This "group approach" is especially successful, in that it gives overweight people the opportunity to discuss freely their experience and to draw encouragement from one another. The class atmosphere is one of camaraderie and cordiality.

Members are encouraged to attend weekly classes until they reach "goal weight." Those who attend 16 consecutive weekly classes receive an award based on the amount of weight loss. The ultimate award is a free lifetime membership for those who reach and maintain goal weight within two pounds.

Foster's Restaurants Friendly Organization

Of special interest to the 60,000 customers who patronize Foster's restaurants daily: did you know that Foster's also owns the new and fabulous Longley's restaurant located in the Alcoa Building, San Francisco? It's one of the most unique places in the City, and features a Hofbrau and counter-style operation, plus a beautiful bar and cocktail lounge. Adding to the atmosphere of friendliness are original paintings of the old Produce Market as it looked before being torn down. In fact, Foster's entire organization is a friendly one — from the President, Henry Solomon, to the efficient staff behind the counters. Prices are most reasonable at Foster's, which is another friendly item worth mentioning, and the food is tastefully served. All in all, it's a great way to enjoy dining — in any one of many Foster's restaurants.

RETIREMENT PARTY — Gala celebration at the Sinaloa, Monday evening, when Nan Urbano, manager of the Fairmont Hotel Blums restaurant and fountain, and staff hosted a surprise party for Betty Butterfield, a retiring Blums employee. Cake, cheers, tears and oles were the order of the evening, with Sinaloa's handsome Raul Lara doing the emcee and vocajing honors.

Exposition Bouillabaise, or "Lazy Man's Cioppino," is a great menu favorite at Sil Oliva's Exposition Fish Grotto on Fisherman's Wharf. A combination of crab, prawns and lobster, it's expertly shelled, and flavored with sherry and tomato sauce... Taste tip: Mustard Steak a la Royce, as recommended by Jack Pichardie, Night Manager at the International Inn restaurant, South San Francisco. This house specialty has a distinctive taste and flavor of its own... Attired in an authentic costume of the Middle East, Shirley Eastman teaches informal classes in Grecian and Armenian dancing every Tuesday and Wednesday at the Balkan Village in Los Altos. A public relations gal from Menlo Park, Shirley is also director and choreographer of "Balkanke," a group of Peninsula women dancers who regularly appear at church and club gatherings... Phil Lehr's Steakery has a new dish that is highly favored by gourmet diners. It's Steak au Poire that is flavored with mild Cheddar Cheese served flambé and is dee-lish!

Two New Paintings are in the art collection on exhibit at Lew Lehr's Steak House in San Francisco's Marina. They're portraits of Bobby Kennedy and Jean Harlow done by noted artist Pawelczak... Dollar Dinner Day, which is featured every Sunday at Hillsdale Farmers Market, will run indefinitely, so says Ray Schaeffer, congenial manager of the complex. This means that every Sunday each of the 10 participating international kitchens will offer a special dollar dinner... Thirty-eight persons gathered for the christening of three-month-old Carrie Marie McMannus, which was held at Yolanda's Terminal Cafe. Flying in from London especially for the occasion was the baby's uncle, Peter J. McMannus... For your group holiday entertaining, try the plush Wine Dining Room at Alpert's Cote d'Azur restaurant. The same fine cuisine is served in the privacy of your own banquet room. Be sure to make early reservations.

Enjoy A Vacation At Nick's Sea Breeze Motel - Pacifica

For a vacation at the beach you'll find Nick's Sea Breeze Motel is the ideal set-up. Located on the shores of the Pacific Ocean in Rockaway Beach, Pacifica, this restful retreat is just thirty minutes from San Francisco and the Peninsula via Highway One. Adjoining the motel is Nick's famous restaurant and lounge, where happy gatherings of the local set and out-of-town regulars dine, sip, dance, and make merry. Breakfast, lunch and dinner served seven days a week. For a touch of the nautical, Nick's new Moonraker, situated across the street (also fronting the shores of the Pacific) serves exquisite dishes of the sea to satisfy particular appetites. If you're one of few who haven't visited this Pacifica playland in recent months, then make a three-point landing here this weekend.

Party Needs - No Problem at Stickney's

Accommodating groups from 30 to 300, Stickney's elegant banquet room, located on the lower floor in the Fifth Avenue Center Building, San Mateo, has a specially trained staff to tend to all your party needs. Having its own private bar and dance floor, the well-appointed facilities are ideal for breakfast, lunch or dinner parties, business meetings, receptions and holiday celebrations. Manager Bob Hoffmeyer invites you to see the facilities and to let him help you make your party arrangements. Located behind the nine-story Fifth Avenue Center building is a free parking area to accommodate several hundred cars. An elevator in the lobby will take you to the ballroom floor.

Lucien Sabella, popular Fisherman's Wharf restaurateur, has a new hobby. Since becoming a low-score "golf great," the A. Sabella's restaurant owner has been collecting an assortment of colorful sweaters, which are causing much comment among the "model-dressed" golf pros.

Golden Pavilion To Open November 16

Next Saturday will see the spectacular Moon Gate of the Golden Pavilion restaurant in Los Altos opening. The Holiday Magazine recommended restaurant of San Francisco will come to the Peninsula with a flourish. The 13-foot circular tunnel entrance, the only one in the United States, will be a portal to new dining adventures in Chinese dining. Over 200 people can dine on high Oriental cuisine in Occidental luxury. An upstairs banquet room will accommodate an additional 250.

Prime rib dinner served in Scotty Campbell's oh-so-pleasant atmosphere remains the talk of the Peninsula. An early hour is suggested for arrival if you're planning dinner here. Better still, a reservation is your best bet.

Emerson Murfee's Villa Square restaurants, the Lanai and Villa Chartier, are geared for the coming holidays, especially for an expected sell-out Thanksgiving crowd. If you have your heart set on supping at one of these traditional holiday gathering spots for family dining, then reservations at an early date are suggested. The Lanai Liquor Store is well-stocked for your home party needs. Special prices for the holiday case lots.

Smash business at Ron Giannotti's Surf House, last weekend, what with the opening of George Cerruti Trio for Thursday, Friday and Saturday night dancing. Give this weekly event a look-see and have fun.

Park Avenue Tours' Flight Package

Jerry Barber, Park Avenue Tours director, off to Los Angeles to finalize a new flight package, which will include a generous refund from the Los Angeles, San Jose and San Francisco areas. Regular-scheduled airlines will be used for flights to Lake Tahoe (South Shore) to Hotel Sahara-Tahoe and Barney's Casino.

Owner-chef Jack Romeo emphasizes that he takes no cooking shortcuts. Only Fresh ingredients go into the making of his 22 varieties of pizza and authentic English Fish 'n' Chips, specialties at his Romeo's restaurant on East Third Avenue, San Mateo. Fresh vegetables (never frozen) are prepared for his Minestrone soup, plus fresh, top quality meat for his pasta. This is no place for light appetites — the portions are heaping, which should be of interest to working people in the downtown San Mateo area.

Yesterday was a big day at Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant, and Delicatessen and Fish Depot. It was the day day fresh crabs ran again. Let's all hope for a big season's catch. Fresh crab to eat in and take out is on the food agenda, right now.

Sam The Man Fireside Favorite

The current entertainment lineup at Phil Maita's Fireside Lounge is one of the most exciting ever. Headlining the marquee is Nude Tamara, followed by Roman and Sativa doing their "Dance of Love," and the unique Topless Lolita. Providing the music for the Topless antics is the cool cat, Sam The Man.

New addition to the fish 'n' chips scene: Rhodes English Fish and Chip Shop, which recently opened its doors to the San Mateo public, is enjoying a brisk 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. business on weekdays. Authentic fish 'n' chips, as enjoyed by the Queen and Royal Family, is the scheme of things. Fred and Maybelle Andriani are your hosts.

TERRA NOVA

TOPICS . . .

By Alice Reichert

ALL TERRA NOVA students, participating in music activities this year (i.e., band, chorus, glee club) welcome the new addition here: a music building. Seeing as T.N. is painfully crowded this year, most music classes were held in the cafeteria, even above the noisy din of lunchtime. Now, however, they practice in a somewhat advanced studio, especially designed for their purposes.

Features in the music building include: a tiered chorus room, separate rooms for the stage band and advanced band, partitioned, sound proof practice rooms, and ample storage space for instruments.

There are still such classes as psychology being held in the music building, because of the tight squeeze here. However, this problem should be worked out sometime in the near future.

THERE ARE FEW schools left in the country today which are in cities, but can still claim the peaceful scene of sheep grazing in green hills right outside the classroom windows. Terra Nova is one of these, although it may not be much longer until the rolling hills will lose their trees and bushes to streets and houses.

The sheep and horses which are commonly seen atop the green fields will disappear, and people on paved streets with mini-lawns will take their place. Even now, the lot which was once used as parking space for faculty cars on Terra Nova Blvd. has been transferred into a cluster of houses.

Between T.N.'s overpopulation pressuring the walls from within, and houses closing in quickly from without, will it soon be a case of the immovable object meeting the irresistible force?

Representing Terra Nova at the California Association of DECA State Delegates Conference on November 2 were Kandy Henderson, Patti Shafer, and DECA Club Advisor, Mr. Bernard Norton.

Held at the Edgewater Inn Marina Hotel in Long Beach, the purpose of the conference was to elect new officers for the California Association of DECA (Distributive Educational Clubs of America). Kandy and Patti, both juniors, and Mr. Norton participated in the planning of the state DECA activities, including the State Leadership Conference in March.

Other activities included guest speakers relating the various activities of their DECA clubs to the conference participants, campaigning of the nominees for the state offices, swimming, and a banquet.

Hubert Humphrey was Terra Nova's choice for President (of those who voted) according to the results of a Mock Election, held November 4.

Only students who had registered the week before could vote, and write-ins were allowed.

Humphrey had a strong lead with 50 per cent, Nixon followed with 20 per cent, Wallace 19 per cent. Write-in candidates were Pat Paulsen, with 6 per cent, Eugene McCarthy, 3 per cent, Nelson Rockefeller with 2 per cent, and Eldridge Cleaver scored .06 per cent (one vote).

G.A.A. will sponsor their sixth annual "Waist Whittlin' Wingding" today.

Campus Is Transformed: 'Palace' for Homecoming

Westmoor was transformed into a "palace" for two days recently as the third annual homecoming was celebrated. Westmoor's third annual Homecoming came on strong as nerves tensed and fingers were crossed in hopes of a favorite winning election of the queen's court.

Nomined by the three football teams, frosh, frosh-soph, and varsity, the girls were voted on by the entire school.

Later in the day, the homecoming rally was held to announce winners.

Charlie Freiberg, Westmoor's student body president, began announcing the winners. Freshmen were in "hysterics" as Cindy Barringer was called to the stand.

Sophomores screeched as two little flower girls provided a train and an escort for Princess Nannette Horan.

Juniors delighted when they heard Cheryl Cobb beckoned to join the court.

By this time, seniors were really on edge and screams echoed throughout the gym as Janet Agar, last year's senior princess, was summoned to represent her class as senior princess.

Paula Dolder was announced as Westmoor's Homecoming Queen of 1968 and eyes were filled with tears as the new queen found her way from the bleachers to her "throne."

Cliffors the site for both Westmoor and El Camino Homecoming festivities.

Five 1912 autos were driven by the Auto Auxiliary Club, as the queen and her court paraded around the field just before they were crowned. El Camino also held its homecoming ceremonies with their queen and her court of three.

Westmoor's cafeteria was decorated for the Homecoming Ball.

The queen, princesses and their escorts entered the dance at approximately 9:15 p.m. and were greeted by the many Westmoorites attending the dance.

Missionaries To Speak At D.C. Conference

The First Baptist Church, 542 Lisbon Street, Daly City, has invited the public to a Baptist Bible Missionary Conference to be held nightly at 7:30 November 20-24.

Five missionaries from the field will show slides of their work and will deliver messages concerning the people of other churches. Missionaries from Hawaii, Korea, Pakistan, Formosa and China will participate—one each night of the conference. Friends of Baptist and the public is invited to attend.

Nursery facilities will be available.

S.S.F. Camera Ace Lauded

The winner of the recent South San Francisco's 60th Anniversary contest by the Historical Association of the S.S.F. Public Library, 840 West Orange Avenue, was won by one of its own citizens, Evelyn Martin.

Evelyn became interested in photography a few years ago when family friends presented her with a camera in gratitude for doing the family bookkeeping without remuneration. She became a member of the Portola Camera Club which now resides in Millbrae. Her membership brought her awards and interest but due to family pressures and obligations, she gave up photography.

Her theme was "South San Francisco As I See It" presented in poetic form which carried is provided at 11 a.m.

Study and participation groups for all ages will meet at 9:45 a.m. Sunday.

Mid-week inspirational service will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

her thoughts and words. To carry her theme, she took scenes that would constitute any city. She wanted to convey to a child, an adult, or even a mere stranger that South San Francisco possessed beauty that would not be lost or forgotten if it could be seen. Her shots of Oyster Point, Orange Avenue Memorial Park, various landmarks, and even a picture of a cat at the Grand Avenue Library doorstep were interesting and impressive according to the judges.

She attributes all her talent and knowledge to Al Urbanus, Lyle Kinnear, Walt Macquire, Oliver Gagliardi and Paul Tracy who have answered her many questions and as a result, this award was a result of their labors. She also pays tribute to Dawn Andrews who has never stopped encouraging her to continue her photography.

She received a war bond which was presented to her by Dr. Robert S. Alvarez, Director of the West Orange Avenue Library.

Lecture At B'nai Israel

The first lecture in the current adult education series of Congregation B'nai Israel at Colma will be held November 20 at 8 p.m. at the templehouse.

The guest speaker will be Rabbi Saul Berman, spiritual leader of Congregation Beth Israel in Berkeley. Rabbi Berman is well known in the Bay Area and was the keynote speaker at a recent protest rally for Soviet Jewry in Sigmund Stern Grove.

His topic will be "Morality and Jewish Law."

The event is open to the public, free of charge.

Rabbi Berman received his BA from Yeshiva University in New York, a Law Degree from New York University and his Ordination from Yeshiva University.

He is also a Master of Hebrew Letters and has a masters degree in biblical science from the University of California at Berkeley. He recently completed a year's study leave at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

B'nai Israel To Fete ORT

Sabbath Services at Congregation B'nai Israel in Colma November 15 will be held in honor of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training).

Members of Northern Peninsula, Buena Vista and Sunlight Chapters will join with B'nai Israel to pay tribute to the organization that has been the vocational training program of the Jewish people for over 80 years, providing skills and a trade to over one million needy Jews.

Rabbi Solomon A. Shore and Cantor Henry Greenberg will conduct the service that begins at 8:30 p.m. and the guest speaker will be Mrs. Morton Dobrow, executive committee chairman of the Northern California Coordinating Council of Women's American ORT.

Members of the three chapters will hostess the Oneg Shabbat (social hour) following the services.

Job's Daughters To Be At Church

Bethel 37, San Francisco, International Order of Job's Daughters will participate in the 9:30 a.m. service at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377-87th Street, Daly City, Sunday.

The honored queen, Marguerite Baker, will head the group of 30 girls attending.

They will sing the anthem for the service.

The pastor, the Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, will preach on the sermon topic, "Reconciliation in and Through Us," at both the 9:30 and 11 o'clock services.

The adult choir of the church, directed by David Frankelberger, will sing at the 11 o'clock service.

There is a "coffee time" between services. Infant care is provided.

Rozzi Re-elected As Fair President

Gaston Periat Sr., 68, a member of the county Fair and Convention Association since 1963, told the association board by letter last night that he will not seek another term on the board.

Periat is currently on a tour of the Caribbean.

Lauding Periat for his service, Association President Guido Rozzi of South San Francisco gave the board's nominating committee the green light to seek recommendations for Periat's successor.

In other action, the nominating committee — headed by Mrs. Edwin Walter and including St. George Lafitte and William Zappetini Jr. — recommended another four-year term as director for Mrs. Walter and Rozzi.

They also recommended reelection of the association's top three officers for another term: Rozzi again as president, George Pottoff as vice president, and Emil Stiefvater as corporate secretary and treasurer.

In looking for a successor to Periat, Mrs. Walter said, her committee will, in accordance with the bylaws, invite in writing nominees recommendations from the following organizations in San Mateo County:

The Board of Supervisors via the county manager, amateur garden clubs, the Cattlemen's Association, the Nurserymen's Association, the county Farm Bureau, the San Mateo County Development Association, and other reputable organizations whose activities are in accord with the objectives of the Fair and Convention Association.

Alioto Won't Give Up On Commuter Tax Plan

San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto said on Friday he will continue to fight for his commuter tax despite the ruling by a Sonoma County judge that the tax is illegal.

"I'm not going to abandon the fight for the commuter tax," Alioto declared at a press conference called after Superior Judge Lincoln F. Mahan issued an injunction against imposition of the controversial levy.

"I'm sure the courts won't uphold the principle of people getting something for nothing. The commuter should pay something for the services he receives in San Francisco."

Alioto said he had not had a chance to read Judge Mahan's order in detail but felt there were two possible grounds for appeal. One would be that the Santa Rosa court was not the proper venue for the case, that it should have been handled in San Francisco. The second would be that the five counties that filed the suit — San Mateo, Alameda, Santa Clara, Marin and Contra Costa — are not the proper parties to sue, that the suit should have been filed by commuters, if at all.

The mayor said he is still interested, however in the possibility of a regional payroll tax, one that would be levied on an equal basis throughout the Bay Area, and might drop the commuter tax idea if that came into being. A regional tax has received almost no support from the other counties, however. Alioto was to meet yesterday with the executive committee of the Association of Bay Area Governments to discuss that proposal.

In Redwood City, Dist. Atty. Keith C. Sorenson said he was pleased with Judge Mahan's decision. He recalled that he "stuck my neck out" last spring when he discussed San Francisco's threat to impose the tax with the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

"I told them they (San Francisco) can't do it," Sorenson recalled, "and that if they tried I believed we could stop them. They tried and we did stop them."

Nixons in Print

WHEN RICHARD M. NIXON becomes the thirty-seventh President of the United States, his life will be ripped open and every fact thereof will be searched, cataloged and published in somebody's book. His favorite food will be entered in a revised edition of The First Ladies' Cook Book.

The state of his health will be described in a new edition of Rudolph Marx's The Health Of The President, or in some new title. Every house he has lived in and will live in from now until he dies will be part of books about American Houses. (Just this month the Lincoln Library of Essential Information announced that the next edition will contain pictures of the Presidents' homes.)

Mr. Nixon's genealogy will be compiled. The jokes he cracks will go into a book like Presidential Wit by Bill Adler. His contemporaries will be reported in Who Was When. World Book and other encyclopedias will make multi-colored charts of the events of his administration.

THE SPEECHES Mr. Nixon makes will be recorded in such collections as Hail To The Chief, or The State of The Union Messages. Rexford Tugwell and Theodore White will carefully describe the campaign that led to President Nixon's election.

The greatest moments of his career will be hailed in a book like Thomas Bailey's Presidential Greatness. Historians will rate him as a president, a man, a father, a husband, a Quaker, a golfer, a fisherman. American Heritage will carry pictures of his life and times.

The lives of his daughters will make a new chapter for Christine Sadler's Children In The White House. Since the daughter's are young and beautiful, the press will follow them as it has done Lynda Bird and Luci. If either or both marry in the White House the weddings will be described in White House Brides, or some other book.

MRS. NIXON will join Mary Todd Lincoln, Dolly Madison, Lemonade Lucy and Lady Bird in a score of new books. She will be featured by most of the current periodicals. The way she decorates the White House will become a chapter in Marianne Means book, The Women In The White House.

The White House servants will write books to tell how it was when Julie and Tricia were giving the orders. Mr. Nixon's secretary and Mrs. Nixon's too will be urged to write their memoirs.

Mr. Nixon's letters will be entered in an anthology along side Truman's letters to his mother and Lincoln's letter to Mrs. Bixby. How Mr. Nixon accepts the confines of the Presidency will become part of a new book on the secret services.

NOVELS ABOUT the Nixons, especially Julie and Tricia, will be written and become best sellers. Movies about their romances will thrill the people of the next century.

If anything is left out it will be found in the latest edition of Joseph Kane's Facts About the Presidents. There is even a book entitled Everything You Want To Know About The Presidents.

Simulated Leathers

QUESTION: Can you give me some information on the care of the new simulated leathers which are so popular this fall?

ANSWER: The National Institute of Dry-cleaning says there are two new simulated leathers on the market. Each one requires individual care. The Polyurethane coated materials can be drycleaned. Expanded Vinyl must be wetcleaned or laundered only. Read the hang-tag labels. If you purchase a garment trimmed in simulated leather, remember the fabric must be compatible with the trim or you will have trouble.

QUESTION: I am afraid to have my fur cleaned or inspected because I have heard that is how some firms trick homeowners into buying new heating systems. How can I tell the ethical from the unethical furnace repairman?

ANSWER: Check out the door-to-door furnace man who rings your door bell and says he has been sent by a certain company to inspect your furnace. Representatives of reputable heating firms do not go door-to-door posing as inspectors and dismantling furnaces without permission to do so. The typical "furnace repair racket" works like this:

A man comes to your door and says he is a furnace inspector. He asks permission to check your furnace. Permission given he makes a quick inspection and then informs you that he thinks his "engineer" should check further. When this so-called engineer arrives, he very likely will inform you that your furnace is in a dangerous condition and should either be completely overhauled or replaced. Homeowners can avoid the furnace repair scheme by having work done by firms of known reliability. When in doubt, check with the BBB.

QUESTION: Can you give me some information on the advertised "free film" offers?

ANSWER: The Federal Trade Commission on September 3rd, after going to the U.S. Supreme Court, ruled that processors may still offer a combination price for film and processing but they will have to tell you what it is all about. The rule now is: "When two articles are always offered together for a stated price, the customary unit of sale is two and to imply that the stated price is the regular price for one and the other is "free" is fallacious.

A 'Practically New' Casket at Cow Palace Weekend Flea Market

By DON GRIERSON

From fresh vegetables to antique furniture, used clothing to secondhand books, from handmade jewelry to, yes, God forbid, a "practically new" casket, there is one place in the Bay Area where you can buy it all.

The flea market, a traditional European phenomenon with roots in the ancient "thieves' market," has caught on in a big way all over the West Coast.

Every weekend, scores of exhibitors offer an unimaginable variety of new and used merchandise at this area's largest "organized" flea market, the Cow Palace "Swap-O-Rama."

Robert Dauley, the young entrepreneur who operates Swap-O-Rama here, said the business has grown at a terrific rate since the market opened one year ago.

BUSINESS in equally brisk at eight other markets operated by Swap-O-Rama throughout the state, and at some 50 other commercial flea markets, according to Dauley.

A familiar phenomenon in Europe for many decades, the flea market, as nearly as anyone can determine, was first "imported" to this country about nine years ago.

Swap-O-Rama, which began with a single market in Los Angeles, started seven years ago, and has been in a state of continual expansion since.

Operators estimate that more than 2,000,000 customers visited flea markets in California last year.

The flea market corresponds roughly to Chicago's famous Maxwell Street, where vendors have operated open-air "shops" for many years.

AT THE COW PALACE, Dauley and the Swap-O-Rama company act as a "middle-man" between "those who have something to sell, and those who own the hall," he explained this week.

He guarantees payment of rent for the use of the Cow Palace facilities, and the individual exhibitors, in turn, pay a small fee for the use of the "stalls" in the market.

In addition, the buying public pays a nominal gate fee.

"Everybody profits," according to Dauley. Even the state "makes out" at the flea market, because sales tax is collected on transactions which would not ordinarily be reported.

Collection of the sales tax is part of the "service" provided by the operator.

MOST OF THOSE operating "small businesses" at the flea market do so on a part-time basis, and the market is open only on weekends.

Many retired individuals, as well as clubs, churches and civic organizations, open booths at the market.

The merchandise offered comes from "every imaginable source," including the garages and attics of the "merchants."

Though most of those in the flea market business at the Cow Palace are strictly "weekenders," there are a few volume dealers who derive a sizeable income from the operation.

Notable among the latter is Charles A. Ross, a retired teamster from South San Francisco.

Known around the flea market as "The Oldtimer," Ross operates a thriving weekend business which occupies a half-dozen or more of the individual stall areas.

Truly an enterprising businessman Ross is a "wheeler-dealer" in the old horse trading tradition.

"I HAVE NEVER seen a thing I couldn't sell," he is fond of boasting.

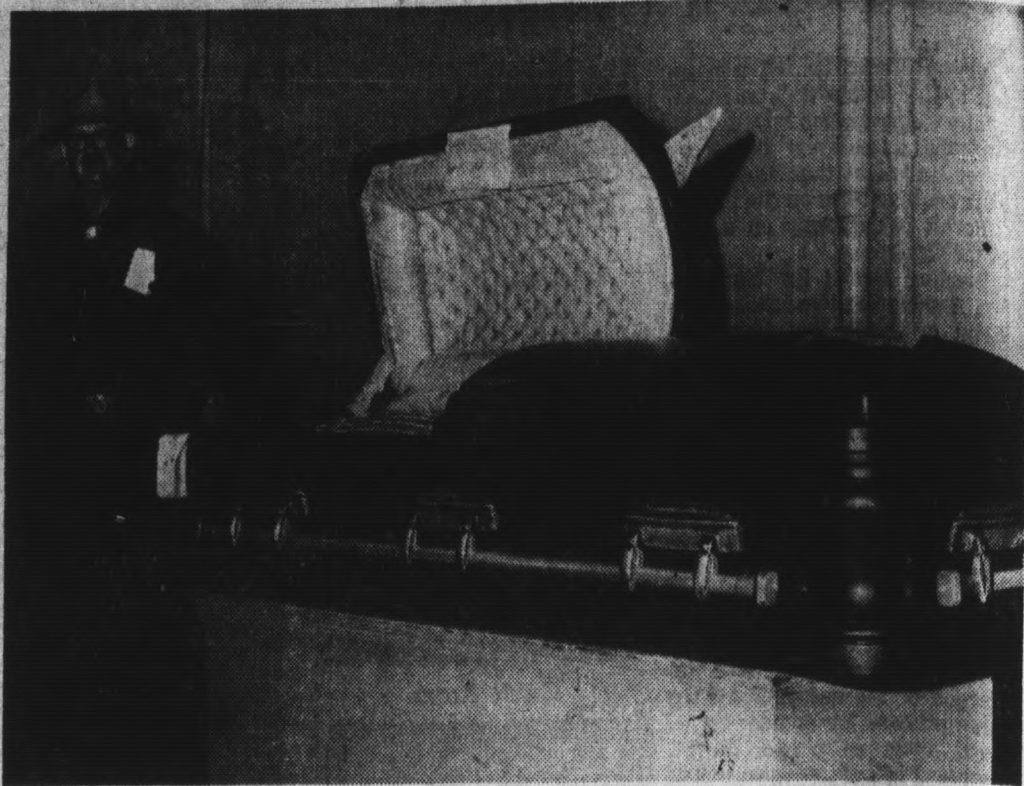

Among the more unlikely items he has offered at bargain rates in recent weeks are a whiskey still and a "practically new" casket.

The whiskey still might have represented his single failure in the business world:

"The Internal Revenue men made me take it off the market," he said.

He still has high hopes for the casket.

"I have had a number of more or less serious offers," he said this week, "including one from a young man who wanted to build a stereo inside it."

CHARLES A. ROSS, one of the world's great horse traders, is fond of boasting that he never saw a thing he couldn't sell. In the interest of furthering his reputation, Ross, known as "The Old Timer" at the Cow Palace flea market, is merchandising this "practically new" casket.

Looking Ahead

THE END OF THE YEAR IS COMING — You can tell by the number of dinners being set up that it won't be long before Old St. Nick plops down the chimney and makes all those notations in the debit column of your checkbook.

And you needn't bother weighing yourself until after the holidays. All that heavy food and drink. The Daly City-Colma chamber held the first event of the Holiday Season with their Installation Dinner at the plush Olympic Club Saturday. For the first time since I can recall the speeches were better than the food. Who wants the burnt end of a roast of prime rib? Not I! But that's what I got and I'm still trying to figure who tipped the waiter to give it to me.

EVERYONE WAS THERE! Well, practically everyone. The new president of the chamber was there. State, county and local government officials were there. A judge was there. And the local councilmen were there. Conspicuous by his absence was one incoming chamber director who was golfing with two North County judges — all missed.

DIDJA KNOW — DOYA CARE? — The late Joe Verducci once told supervisor Bob St. Clair (6 ft. 9 in., 260 pounds) that he was TOO SMALL to play football when he was 15 years old. Bob came back the next year and qualified, having stretched another six inches and added a hefty 60 pounds to his growing frame.

THAT WAS GEORGE ALPHRIN'S nice new car wrapped around a big Cadillac at the corner of O'Farrell and Larkin one rainy night last week. He was on his way to the International Lions Convention dinner at the Hilton Hotel in downtown San Francisco when this guy in the Cad decided to see if he could make it through a red light. No one was hurt.

BACK TO THE DART BOARD —

We didn't do TOO BAD on that past election. Sure, we thought Max would edge out Cranston. And we predicted Nixon would get 52 per cent of the popular vote — not the 43.8 per cent he tallied. BUT YOU WILL NOTE THAT WALLACE GOT what we said he would end up with. The others were correct too. This bolstered our morale so much we just might predict who Nixon will name for his cabinet — in December.

THAT CROSSING GUARD at the corner of Market and Hillside has his hands full during school. He used to have some help from the local police. Where are they? One crossing guard for hundreds of scrambling tykes running around on four corners isn't enough!

ASSEMBLYMAN LEO RYAN is still waging a battle on two fronts, he confided Saturday: The Sierra Point crossing and those health spas in the state.

POSTCARDING FROM TAHITI is Shakey Johnson, the former pizza king, now enjoying his $11 million by winging his way around the globe. Says Shakey: "I may never come home."

BIG DOINGS AT THE T-BOLT IN MILLBRAE — Westlake Merchants will kick up their heels at their annual ball Saturday (Nov. 23) with Sal Carson and his Big Band performing the background music for lovely songstress Sylvia Gaylord.

BAD END TO A PERFECT START — About 110 persons attended the gala California Newspaper Advertising Executives' Association dinner at the Leopard Cafe in SF the other P.M., along with honored guest George McQueen. The damper on the night's festivities came around 10:30 p.m. as guests begin departing. Someone had taken Mrs. McQueen's fur coat. The search goes on.

The Public 'Allows' All That 'Sex Junk'

BY BARBARA BLADEN
Post Drama Critic

"How can they allow such films on the screen? Who wants to see all that sex junk?"

I'm asked this question countless times. The sordid truth is simple. The public allows and demands them by their increased attendance and in the film industry, money spells success.

The sad truth about sex on the screen is that there is no censorship code that can't be broken and the restriction on these "skin flicks" as they're called must come from each individual's sense of self-censorship. It's one thing viewing such films willingly but it would be a rude shock to stumble onto one unknowingly.

RUSS MEYER SETS A BUDGET OF $70,000 for such films as "Lorna," "Mud Honey," "Faster Pussy-cat, Kill Kill," "Motor Psycho," and his latest "Finders Keepers, Lovers Weepers" at the Presidio Theatre. His first film "The Immoral Mr. Teas" which took only four days to make and $24,000 to produce, has grossed $1.2 million so far. That return on investment, which averages at more than 40 to 1, has been matched only by "Gone With The Wind."

The shocking fact is that these "nudie" films play in drive-ins and big city theatres for runs up to five months. People are so used to sex and violence in major studio films such as "Rachel, Rachel," "The Carpet Baggers," and "I Love You, I'll Kill You," that what used to be termed pornographic film is now little different than a commercial film.

The Man's 'Fed Up'

Editor, The Post:

I am fed up with the situation in the Jefferson Elementary School District.

I may not only agree but might heartily support the teachers in their demands as an ex-AFT teacher. However, I cannot understand what section of the Education Code permits the school district administrator to relegate the authority to any group of teachers for a school day. The district determines the length of the day and for all honest purposes should not knuckle in to anyone. The teachers may not like the working conditions and I believe they have the right to strike. If necessary, to improve it. But, this quibblededook that we are setting day by day from an administration without the guts to administer the schools it was either elected or employed to do, seems to express the feed from some serious action of the voters the next time we elect a school board.

As we see unwinding before our eyes the ineptness of the present administration it is not so difficult to understand why the last request for an increase of tax limitation failed.

The horror of this is that neither the teachers nor the administrators are damaged by the "mini-strike"; it's the youngsters. It also leaves parents in a constant state of lack of knowledge, depending upon word of mouth rumor to find out what is going on or when it is going on. If there is or isn't a school, if there is a qualified person supervising your child in school during the absence of the employed professional teacher and who is liable for the actions of such an unqualified, untrained person?

The real comedy, however, is that the CTA has lambasted the AFT for years about how unprofessional a strike is, and yet it is the CTA group that calls this Alice in Wonderland type of operation. If they do not have the guts to strike, they should show up in the classrooms and teach the students they were hired to teach. The Education Code of the State of California provides for the County Superintendent of Schools to move in and take over a local school district out of control. Where is this County Superintendent with all that is going on or is the best that he has to offer the impotent list of suggestions he hopes the teachers might be willing to live with?

I wish to make it clear that with all this talk of $30,000 give or take a few floating around I can't understand why the district has stopped towel service in the gym which only two years ago they found to be detrimental to the health and welfare of the students.

To the teachers — If you have a legitimate gripe — strike the schools and close their doors and let us parents do something in the meantime. If you are going to be there part of the day and tacitly admit that you do not have a legitimate gripe, quit dancing around and get on with the job you were hired to do.

Pacifican Is Held After Wild Auto Chase in S.M.

A 20-year-old Pacifica youth was arrested Thursday after he led San Mateo police on a wild automobile chase through the fog-shrouded streets of San Mateo.

Police said that William J. McPhillips, 1327 Hermosa, was first stopped in an alleged drag race at the intersection of Barneson and El Camino Real at about 11 p.m.

When Officer Bernard Hovorka gave chase in his car the suspect turned off El Camino and headed for Palm Avenue at speeds in excess of 70 miles per hour.

The suspect then headed for downtown San Mateo via South Claremont at speeds of over 80 miles per hour, police noted.

At one point in the chase, the suspect reportedly tried to run a police roadblock by aiming his vehicle at a police car and forcing the car off the road.

The suspect finally eluded San Mateo police by speeding north on B Street.

Minutes later, county sheriff's deputies notified San Mateo authorities that they had caught McPhillips at the intersection of Crystal Springs and Skyline Boulevard.

McPhillips was charged with the following violations of the vehicle code:

Drag racing, four counts of running stop signs, driving on the wrong side of the road, four counts of running red stop lights, speeding, failure to yield to emergency vehicle and failure to halt.

He was also cited for assault with a deadly weapon (his auto).

DENTAL HEALTH FACTS

Brush After Meals

Brushing after meals not only helps to remove food particles from which decay acids are formed, but also helps to remove the bacteria that are responsible for producing the acid. So get in the habit of brushing after every meal.

Brush Thoroughly

Even if you brush after every meal, success in preventing decay won't be achieved unless you brush thoroughly. Use a good toothbrush that is in good condition.

Please ask your dentist about proper brushing of teeth.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth, as dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Bruno Police Find Boys In a Closet

The alertness of an unidentified witness, led to the arrest of two San Bruno juveniles who were caught by police hiding in a closet of the Rudolph Vercelli home at 530 San Antonio Avenue.

A spokesman for the San Bruno police department praised the citizen for assisting officers in the apprehension of the pair by calling in that a burglary apparently was in progress at the Vercelli home.

When officers responded, they noted a rear sliding door open. In searching the home, the patrolmen found the two juveniles—one age 15, the other 7—hiding in a den closet. In their possession was cash in the amount of $1.21 and a switchblade knife, assertedly the property of the victim.

Arrested were Ronald Oneto, 15, of 356 Chapman Avenue, and Robert Tobiness, 17, 261 Village Way.

Oneto was booked on charges of burglary and destroying public property, while Tobiness was jailed on the burglary count. San Bruno police said Oneto tore up a blanket in his juvenile cell after being booked.

Man Held In Wild Shootout

A San Francisco man was shot in the foot and later arrested last week in a wild shootout with police in the parking lot of the White Front Store at El Camino Real and Spruce Lane in South San Francisco.

Ronald S. Bridgeforth, 24, of 758 Haight Street, San Francisco, was apprehended along with two other suspects after police were called to the department store to check on a suspected fraudulent credit card.

Officer Mifflyn Singleton and Detective Douglas McCool answered a call to check in at the store from security guard Charles Williams about 7 p.m., according to police reports.

When the two policemen arrived, Williams and Roy O. Roberts, assistant manager at the store, were talking to Bridgeforth on the floor of the crowded department store. As the officers questioned Bridgeforth about the credit card, he pulled a revolver from beneath his coat, and fled through a rear exit, dodging several customers along the way, according to police.

Once in the parking lot, he jumped into a late model sedan with two other men, and fired several shots at the two pursuing officers, who then returned fire, police said.

Another policeman, George Baptista, arrived on the scene in a patrol car as the suspects fled, according to officers, and caught the parking lot exit.

At that point Bridgeforth leaped from the car and fired three shots at the patrol car, shattering the rear window.

The three officers on the scene then opened fire on the suspect car, puncturing both rear tires and wounding Bridgeforth in the right foot.

Converging upon the suspect car, officers apprehended Bridgeforth and his two companions, Ray M. Boudreaux, 26, and Henry W. Jones, 33, both of San Francisco.

All three have been charged with attempted murder, firearms violations, and possession of fraudulent credit cards.

Police said three guns, a .38-caliber revolver and two .45-caliber automatic pistols, were found in the suspect's car.

The revolver was empty, and had been fired six times, officers said. A large quantity of ammunition was also found in the car.

Bridgeforth is under guard at an undisclosed hospital, and his two companions are in custody awaiting arraignment, police said.

Both the store and the parking lot were crowded with shoppers when the shootout occurred.

Police Chase, Trap Suspects At School

San Bruno police arrested four persons — two adults and two juveniles — as they allegedly tried to cart away loot from the Bel Air School on Third Avenue Friday night.

Arrested at the scene were Mike Van Hees, 19, of 9978 Gilwood Road, Oakdale, and Wilford A. Myers, 21, 14863 Bancroft Avenue, San Leandro, and two juveniles ages 13 and 16.

A passing neighborhood resident spotted four suspects breaking into the school and called police.

Two of the youths were trapped inside the school by San Bruno police units, one suspect was caught several blocks away after an exhausting foot chase and another was found hiding in the back seat of the suspects' car parked nearby, police said.

Entry to the building was made by removing a glass window pane, reaching inside and unlocking a door.

Police recovered several school items, including a recorder, fire extinguisher and school patrol safety badges.

Ground Meat Will Ease Strain on Family Budget

East the budget while you appease the appetite.

That's what you can expect with the use of any number of meats that go a long way when they're ground, says a meat expert.

Very few foods surpass ground beef for thrift. The initial cost is less than for most other meats. It extends easily. It's at home with many other foods.

What's more, it's tender because the fibers have been cut by the grinding process. That means, also, that cooking time is cut, so shrinkage is pared down.

It doesn't always need to be ground beef made into the same meat loaf. What about either beef or lamb combined with pork and rice for a meat loaf that's different?

Or, have you tried an upside-down ham loaf with ham leftovers? It looks as pretty as the famous cake only it comes to the table as a main course.

Then, there are variety meats like liver or heart. Either of these can be ground to be made into a loaf. Heart is used in the recipe below with a spiced cherry sauce that gives it Maryland style.

Like other meats, heart supplies first-class protein, meaning it contains eight essential amino acids which cannot be manufactured by the body. It's also an excellent source of iron and a good source of riboflavin, thiamine and niacin.

High in natural flavor, heart is especially so when combined with ground pork and served with bright red, spiced cherries in a sauce.

GROUND HEART PATTIES — MARYLAND STYLE

- 1 pound heart (2 pork, 2 calf or 4 lamb hearts)
 - 1/2 pound ground pork
 - 2 cups soft bread crumbs
 - 2 eggs, beaten
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - Flour
 - Lard or drippings
 - 1 cup red (sour) pitted cherries and juice
 - 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 6 or 8 whole cloves
- Wash hearts thoroughly and remove hard parts. Put through food grinder. Combine heart, ground pork, crumbs, eggs and seasonings. Shape into 8 to 10 patties. Dredge well in flour and brown in lard or drippings. Add cherries, sugar and seasonings, and cover tightly. Simmer on top of range or in a slow oven (325 degs. F.) 45 minutes to 1 hour, or until patties are done. Four or five servings.

MEAT AND RICE LOAF

- 1 pound ground beef or lamb
- 1/2 pound round pork
- 1 cup cooked rice

3 tablespoons chopped onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup evaporated milk
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
Combine all ingredients and mix well. Pack into a 9x5-inch loaf pan and bake in a slow oven (325 degs. F.) 1 1/2 hours. Six to 8 servings.

Small frozen egg rolls, excellent for use with cocktails, also make an unusual dinner first course, snack, or main course side-dish. These convenient tidbits take only 6 to 10 minutes from freezer to table, and can be oven-heated, pan-fried or deep-fried.

Served as part of a meal, small egg rolls are delicious when interesting relishes accompany them. These egg rolls are now available with three new fillings: chicken, shrimp and lobster. The home economists for R. J. Reynolds Foods have developed some savory relishes created especially to enhance these fillings.

Peachy Egg Roll Relish is a fruity-good accompaniment for chicken egg rolls served as appetizers. Its subtle peach color makes it as appealing to the eye as it is to the taste.

Avocado Relish adds a zesty flavor complement to either shrimp or lobster egg rolls. This egg roll and avocado combination can be served both as an appetizer and as an egg roll and relish main course side-dish.

PEACHY EGG ROLL RELISH

- 1 cup drained, thawed and chopped frozen peach slices
- 1/4 cup slivered almonds
- 1/2 teaspoon rum extract
- 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, room temperature
- 1 package (6 ounces) frozen Chicken Egg Rolls

Mix all ingredients until well blended; chill. Serve with hot egg rolls, prepared according to instructions.

Makes 1 cup dressing; 12 small egg rolls.

AVOCADO RELISH

- 1 ripe avocado, peeled and diced
- 1/2 tomato, peeled, seeded and diced
- 1 green onion or scallion, chopped

Mix all ingredients until well blended; chill. Serve with hot egg rolls, prepared according to instructions.

Makes 1 cup dressing; 12 small egg rolls.

Shrimp or Lobster Egg Rolls

Stuffed Celery

Stuff celery with cream cheese or blue cheese spread, press in sliced natural almonds and cut into segments for hors d'oeuvre or to add to tossed salads.

NORWEGIAN Jule Kaga, packaged on bread board, with gap wrappings, is thoughtful hostess gift.

Bake Norwegian Fruit Bread for the Holidays

Christmas is the oldest of Nordic festivals, and the Norwegian celebration is steeped in tradition. All Christmas preparations must be completed before St. Thomas' Day, December 21. During the next two weeks, Norwegians observe the Christmas peace and only the most necessary work is done. The table is always set during this period, and visitors drop in any time for food and drinks.

A traditional sign of yuletide hospitality is a special Norwegian fruit bread known as Jule Kaga. A cardamon-flavored round loaf filled with raisins and candied cherries, Jule Kaga is covered with snowy frosting and decorated with "flowers" of candied cherries and slivered almonds.

This modern version of Jule Kaga is prepared by the Rapidmix Method. The "no-dissolve" method, Rapidmix treats yeast as a dry ingredient, adding it with the flour, sugar and salt. In addition, initial beating steps are done with an electric mixer for easier preparation and handling.

Home-baked Jule Kaga, attractively packaged on a bread board and decorated with a holiday bow, is a thoughtful hostess gift during the Christmas season. To package, cool loaves completely after baking. Let frosting set, then place bread on a board and wrap loosely in plastic wrap or foil. If desired, box and cover with holiday paper.

JULE KAGA

- 4 to 4 1/2 cups unsifted flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon ground cardamon
- 2 packages Active Dry Yeast
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) margarine
- 1/2 cup seedless raisins

- 1/4 cup chopped blanched almonds
- 1/4 cup chopped candied cherries
- 1/4 cup chopped candied citron
- Confectioners' sugar frosting

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1 1/2 cups flour, sugar, salt, cardamon and undissolved active dry yeast.

Combine milk, water and margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat for 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add 1/2 cup flour, or enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat on high speed for 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Punch dough down; turn out onto lightly floured board. Knead in raisins, blanched almonds, candied cherries and citron until evenly distributed. Form into round ball; place on large greased baking sheet. Cover, let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking sheet and place on wire rack to cool. When cool, frost with confectioners' sugar frosting. If desired, garnish with sliced almonds. Makes 1 large round cake.

Little Yule Cakes

Prepare dough as directed above. Punch dough down; turn out onto lightly floured board. Knead in fruits and nuts. Divide into 16 equal pieces. Shape each into ball; place 3 inches apart on greased baking sheets. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 25 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking sheets and place on wire racks to cool. When cool, frost with confectioners' sugar frosting. If desired, garnish with raisins, candied fruit or nuts. Makes 16 individual cakes.

Mixed Grill Luncheon For Guests

Mixed grills are a bit like a miniature smorgasbord in that they have a variety of foods. Not only do they look handsome but they're interesting to eat.

One mixed grill that goes beautifully to a luncheon is this one using breaded sweetbreads, thin slices of ham, pork sausage links, mushrooms and asparagus.

To complete the menu, serve with a pretty molded fruit salad, iced beverage and a coconut ice cream ball with sauce.

Sweetbread Grill—De Luxe
3 pairs of sweetbreads
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
Melted butter or margarine
Cracker crumbs

12 pork sausage links
6 mushroom caps
6 slices thin toast
6 thin slices cooked ham
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) asparagus tips, heated and drained
chopped parsley

Simmer sweetbreads 20 minutes in water to which vinegar and salt have been added. Plunge in cold water. Drain and remove membrane. Cut sweetbreads lengthwise in half and dip in melted butter or margarine. Roll in cracker crumbs and place on broiler with sausages to brown sweetbreads and cook sausages. In the meantime, fry mushrooms and make toast. Heat ham slices in broiler 5 minutes and arrange a slice on each piece of toast. Place a portion of the sweetbreads on ham and top with mushroom cap. Arrange sausages and asparagus around the sweetbreads. Sprinkle melted butter and chopped parsley over top. Six servings.

For Big One

Canned Blue Lake variety green beans can make a wonderful Thanksgiving "family dinner" vegetable. Turn drained beans into large baking dish (use 2 or 3 cans if your family is a big one), mix in a little catsup, Worcestershire and chopped onion and top with crushed cheese crackers that have been well moistened with melted butter. Heat uncovered in the oven.

Pacifican Shot to Death

A young Pacifica man was shot to death in a robbery Wednesday in the San Francisco business district.

Ronald Dehlinger, 21, of 546 Monterey Road, was killed at 7:15 p.m. when two men held up the Sacramento Street garage where he was employed.

Police said Dehlinger was alone on duty at Linderman Garage, 222 Sacramento, when the robbery and shooting occurred. He was found lying behind the register counter in a lighted area of the garage, killed by a single bullet in the left chest.

Two passersby reported seeing two men run from the garage moments after the single shot rang out.

The robbers netted approximately $150 in cash.

Dehlinger, who would have been 22 this month, is survived by his wife and mother.

Pacifica Home Slump

Building activity in Pacifica dropped drastically last month from both the total for October, 1967, and the total for September of this year.

With 19 permits issued last month, building totaled $130,739. The total for October, 1967, was $1,436,937.

Of last month's permits, 13 were for residential additions, five new residences and one commercial addition.

Building for the four-month period from July 1 through October 31 of this year totaled $2,540,809, compared with a total of $2,610,944 during the same period in 1967.

Crestmoor Loses Again

By JOHN HORGAN
Post Sports Writer

Apparently Crestmoor High School's Falcons simply can't stand prosperity.

After winning their first Mid-Peninsula League football game in their history two weeks ago, the Falcons came back on Friday, and hoping for more of the same, were instead crushed by Aragon, 38-6.

The Dons' victory was as one-sided as the score indicates. Tallying 19 points in the space of 4 minutes and 20 seconds at the end of the second quarter, a 25-6 halftime lead and was never threatened after that.

During that brief span, after Crestmoor had tied the game at 6-6, Aragon scored rapid-fire touchdowns in this fashion:

—A 16-yard pass from Jeff Hardman to Mark Murphy at 5:50;

—A one-yard plunge by Jeff Egan (after a 57-yard punt return by Bruce Nelson set it up) at 2:44; —And, a 36-yard scamper by Egan again at 1:08.

After that flurry to close out the first half, Aragon tallied twice more in the second half on a 21-yard run by Nelson and on a 54-yard pass and run play from reserve quarterback Dave Ankele to halfback Dennis Amoroso.

The Dons' first score came on a 14-yard run by Nelson in the opening period.

Crestmoor's lone touchdown followed three plays later. That one came on a 46-yard run by halfback Don Wright.

Even with all the pyrotechnics by the fleet of Aragon backs (the Don coaching staff used every available man on their roster in this one), the key to the school's best point-making effort of 1968 had to be found in the line.

Led by massive Fionua, a 6-6, 245-pound mastodon of surprising agility and strength, the Aragon defensive line wreaked havoc on their out-manned foe all afternoon on the San Mateo High School field. Crestmoor's offense managed just five first downs and a total yardage net of 80 yards yesterday.

Fonuta personally caused two fumbles, threw opposing backs for losses on several occasions and generally became a part of the Crestmoor backfield for the better part of the day.

For Aragon, the victory upped its season record to 3-4-1, one game left against Hillsdale on November 22. The Dons' MPL mark is now 2-3.

Crestmoor, 2-6 for the year and 1-4 in MPL action, will finish its season next weekend against neighboring Capuchino

Coach Hoisted

Hillsdale Upsets Cap's Mustangs

By CHRIS STAVE
Post Sports Writer

The walk off the field has been a long trip for Hillsdale High School football coaches this season, but on Friday afternoon the walk turned into an ecstatic, if bumpy ride.

Knight coach Ron Anderson was hoisted and carried off the field after Hillsdale capitalized on a Capuchino bobble and held on to win an upset 13-7 victory at the Mustang field.

Cap got the opening kickoff and promptly did what it has done all year to keep itself in the Mid-Peninsula League cellar—fumble. Hillsdale recovered on the "Tang 30. Shortly afterward Hillsdale co-captain Tommy Kellogg scored on fourth and one from the nine to make it 6-0.

The Mustangs' lone score came in the second period on a 25-yard pitch from Dennis Haag to Gary Amadio. Amadio was forced to leave the game shortly afterward with a severe muscle pull — just one more jinx for the Tangs, who had previously lost starting halfback George Perez with an ankle injury.

The Knights' go-ahead score came in the third quarter on a wild broken play. Knight quarterback Brad Metheny pitched a short one to Larry Hayes, who, as one observer put it, "mut have run 100 yards laterally." In a straight line, the play was good for 54 yards, a score and the victory.

It was a standoff after that. The usually effective Capuchino passing attack mired when the pass protection broke down, and the Tangs fumbled four times. Cap coach Gordy Young muttered ruefully that it seemed like the Mustangs had lost every one — fumbles had also cost Cap victories against Burlingame and San Mateo.

Cap's Glenn Call was the game's leading rusher with 93 yards in 17 carries. Kellogg packed for 49 yards in 14 carries to pace the Knights.

It was the first conference victory for Hillsdale, and brought the Knights one game out of the conference cellar, into a tie with Crestmoor (the Falcons won their first-ever MPL game last week at the Knights' expense).

That should be little consolation for Ron Anderson however. Next week the Knights face Burlingame, the only squad besides San Mateo with an unblemished MPL record.

Crestmoor High School coach John Christgau was in a celebratory mood on Saturday following his class C basketball team's 64-54 championship smasher over Hillsdale High at the Knight gym Friday night.

Christgau, lighting up his victory stogie, basked in the glory of a successful coach as the Falcons' C's victory gave the school its first basketball championship in history. The cagers ended their Mid-Peninsula League season with a 13-1 mark.

BOB SEXTON

El Camino's Coach Asks For Transfer

Veteran El Camino High School football coach Bob Sexton has submitted a letter of resignation.

He requested that he be transferred to a junior high school within the South San Francisco School District.

The Col's varsity coach since the school first opened six years ago, Sexton listed his desire for El Camino to have "a new and fresh approach" as his reason for his resignation. The request must first go before the superintendent and the board of trustees as a formality before approval.

Sexton has led the Colts to a 27-25-3 over-all record in those six years with a league mark of 10-1-1.

The Colts were title threats but the past two years injuries and a faltering offensive attack have slipped them from the ranks of title-hopefuls.

Speculation is that, if the resignation and transfer is approved, Sexton will be teaching at Alta Loma Junior High next season. He started his coaching career at Marin Junior High School.

El Camino Principal Robert Keropian was somewhat surprised at the request.

"Bob is an outstanding physical education teacher and an extremely devoted and hard-working individual," Keropian noted. "We wish him well in whatever he chooses to do."

No successor has yet been named or even considered as the announcement came as a surprise to everyone concerned.

Belated Top Sports Saga

A bevy of premier sporting events (the World Series, Olympics, the baseball draft) has kept us from devoting a column to what — locally, at least — has to rank as one of the top sports sagas of the year.

Two Jefferson Union High School District teachers, Gary Thompson, Terra Nova business, and Jess Jones, Oceana football coach, trekked to the wilds of British Columbia this past summer with a fully complemented safari to kill the rare and elusive Stone Sheep and Rocky Mountain Goat. (BC is the only place on earth where the Stone Sheep exists).

Thompson and Jones both got what they went after, and Thompson killed a record-breaking Stone Sheep.

It was a trip that Thompson, at least, had been contemplating for several years, and which in actuality took one full year to plan, the time in which one must make advance reservations for such a hunt; not to mention six months, within that year, of intense preparation.

If anyone thinks of safaris only in terms of white hunters in East Africa, he need only study the following facts and figures to know that safaris can exist in North America:

THERE WERE 11 people besides Thompson and Jones on the hunt — four other hunters, the outfitter and chief guide (Lynn Ross, top man for such an expedition in British Columbia), a wrangler, a cook and four other guides. There were also 34 horses, three tons of food (some to be cached for future hunting parties), and thousands of pounds of other miscellaneous equipment. The party was out for 21 days during July and August and traveled some 400-500 miles on horseback around the Ross Ranch on Pink Mountain (147 miles up the Alaskan Highway out of Dawson Creek).

(The hunters paid roughly $100 a day, which included everything except ammunition, and all told the trip, adding trophy fees, tags, licenses and the cost of mounting prizes, cost each member about $3,000.)

The trip was at least potentially as dangerous as a march into darkest Africa, and at times almost as uncomfortable, even for experienced outdoorsmen such as Jones and Thompson. The horses they rode, for example, weren't always broken in, because they live on the range like wild horses and are saddled only when hunting parties mean to use them. Jones was bucked off one, and the party's wrangler was thrown into a stream, almost drowned, and had to be returned to the ranch with several broken ribs.

Jones had to match "his" sheep a 200-yard sprint before he finally nailed him with a single shot. Thompson got a Rocky Mountain Goat by circling around a mountain for six hours in a driving rain, only to find he wasn't where he had originally been sighted. Gary then had to start retracing his route, finally spotted the goat below where he had figured to be, and then had to stalk him under a blazing sun until he finally got him at 350 yards.

(One of the reasons Stone Sheep are so elusive is that they can see you coming! They have eight "binocular" vision. They're also extremely tough and hard to kill.)

But to a true hunter, such hardships are minimal, especially when you bag a record breaker, as Thompson did. He dropped a 169 pointer to make it "about half-way up the list" in the Boone and Crockett Record Book, the first word in the trophy hunting world. It takes a kill of 165 to make the book. (The "points" represent inches, and are a total of a rather complicated method of determining the true length of a curled horn.) Thompson's sheep, which he killed with a Browning .270 at 125 yards, weighed about 250-300 pounds, which in weight isn't especially large. But it's that full curl that counts.

SO NEARLY OBSESSED with the Stone Sheep and Rocky Mountain Goat was the party — especially Thompson — that they passed up moose, caribou, wolves, wolverines, deer and Grizzly Bear while running down their preferred prey. There were, says Thompson, some especially good caribou and hundreds of record moose. They did take advantage, however, of fabulous fishing. (Thompson made six casts and came up with six trout.)

Thompson and Jones are now talking of completing hunting's "Grand Slam." That's a sheep of each known species. Only 162 hunters to this time have ever accomplished the feat. To this end, Thompson and Jones are currently planning a 1970 trip to Alaska (Northwest Territory) for Dall Sheep, are busy applying for desert sheep in Nevada and Arizona, and hope to eventually bag Big Horns in Wyoming.

THE FOLLOWING is a "Tag End" that had to be cut a couple of weeks ago, but we enjoyed it, so here it is again, the uncut version:

When a reporter asked coach John Ralston, after Stanford's recent 21-21 tie with lowly Washington State, why, on Stanford's last TD he hadn't gone for the two point conversion rather than just the singleton kick, Ralston replied:

"The percentages are against you in going for the two points. We knew we could move the ball and thought we could get another six points."

Which leads to the Question of the Week: If Ralston KNEW the Indians could move the ball, then why did he even bother going for the tie? A missed two point try would have put them just a point behind, which isn't anything to worry about when a team can move the ball.

OTHER MISCELLANY: Daly City boy Tolia Solaita, who may be the man to take Mickey Mantle's place at first base, has been named Topps' Minor League Player of the year. . . . The premature death of Vern Stephens, one of the best of the power hitters of the famous Boston Red Sox of the power-team of the late '40's and early '50's, reminds us that it was Stephens, more than any other player, who popularized the thin handled "whip" bat which has possibly been the largest single contributing factor to the modern homerun. We understand, in fact, that one of the most popular bats among today's pros — the "S" model — is Stephens' old "whip" model. . . . "S" for Stephens.

And a left-over quote from the recent "Bowtie" Walsh series: "One experience I'll never forget (in Moscow), aside from the continual friendliness of the people, was the day I brought a batch of balloons with me, and while walking down one of the main streets one day threw them into the air. To my surprise, not only did children begin playing with them, but the adults as well."

TAG END: One of the greatest quotes out of the Olympics came from an American Negro boxer who, unfortunately, we haven't been able to identify. When asked by a reporter what his feelings were about national pride and the demonstration by Tommy Smith and John Carlos and their subsequent dismissal from Mexico, he replied, "I don't know nothin' about that stuff, I'm for me."

And THAT, fans, is exactly what the Olympics were designed for, and what they should be for — the glory of the individual. If the letter of that basic tenet were followed, most of the problems which seem to always dog the Olympics would be eliminated.

CSST, Westmoor Matched Friday

Warriors Trounce HMB, 41-6

By JERRY LITTELL
Post Sports Writer

With final preparations and formalities out of the way the North Peninsula League now gets itself for the football finale involving the conference's two undefeated teams — South San Francisco and Westmoor High Schools.

The defending-champion Warriors limbered up for this Friday night's crucial by upending Half Moon Bay, 41-6, on Friday afternoon while Pete Matisi's Rams, who had a bye, confined themselves to last minute scouting. In other NPL games on Friday, El Camino got by Terra Nova, 14-6, while Jefferson rallied past Oceana, 21-13.

It was another impressive aerial attack by Ray DeJong's Warriors, now 5-0 in league and 7-4 overall, as quarterback Willie Ergas and Brad Brian completed 11 of 18 attempts for 174 yards. Twice they scored through the air, once from the 14 to end Steve Venters and another to Ashland Whitfield from the 20, and, with kicker Ron Palla weakened by the flu, added three PAT passes for good measure.

Tailback Lory Bernardini positively one of the county's top running backs, carried the ball just 13 times but gained 125 yards in a little over half the game. And with the Warriors completely dominating the ground and air game and stopping the Cougar offense, DeJong was able to get a look at virtually every running back on the team.

"We know we are going to be in tough against Westmoor," DeJong noted. "They have a good offensive attack and some strong runners. It should be an interesting game from all standpoints."

Despite being penalized 160 yards, El Camino managed to keep Terra Nova winless with a 14-6 win. The aerial duo of Frank Lucia to Frank Anderson combined to give the Colts, who finish against Jeff next week, the winning score on a 60-yard pass.

Marsh Neil had put the Colt ahead in the second period with a three-yard run before Terra Nova quarterback John Burgess gave the Tigers, now 0-8-0, a score on a one-yard keeper. Frank Ingersoll was the leading ground-gainer with 105 yards in 14 carries.

A 68-yard pass from Tom Catalano to end Bill Fisher propelled the Jefferson Indians to a 21-13 victory over Oceana. Jeff, which has lost only to SSF and tied Westmoor this season after going winless last year, got another century performance from halfback Willie Cook, who tallied twice on runs of 60 and one yards, and racked up 141 yards in 28 carries.

Oceana's diminutive quarterback Dave Morton opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge but, after the ensuing kickoff Cook tied the game with his 60-yarder. A blocked Tony Moss punt by Dave Wright set up the final Shark TD as Souza ran it in from the seven.

Jeff came right back, howev-

Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH
Scores were high Tuesday night as Harry Rhodes of the Fireman's Fund League 185-522, and a big 244 first game, a 215 second game and a 187 final effort. Charlene Stralman topped the ladies with a 176 game and 486 series.

Jim Jolly didn't want to "get into a rut" in the Southgate Mixed Fives League last week. After shooting two 230 games, he dropped to 172 for a big 632 series. In the ladies' department Lori Adler led the scoring with a 144 game and series.

Su Rille led the Ladies' 850 Scratch League Monday night as she improved jumped to 225 the second game and finished with 235 for a great 627 series.

Our Junior 900 team moved back to the winning side of the ledger as they took two games from the Diablo Bowling team. Ray Ng, who now carries an average of a 229 game and a 638 series. Next Sunday our boys travel to the 19th Avenue Bowl in San Mateo.

Another of our Junior 900 team members shot a great score as Barry Brown hit the pocket every time, leaving only one shaborn eight pin as he shot a tremendous 289 game in the Westmoor-High School League.

Ron Chappara's 209 game and 531 series topped the Golden Gate Handicap League for the week.

Mark Ordonio Posted a big 240 game.

Water Polo Team Wins

The College of San Mateo water polo team clinched a championship tie in the Golden Gate Conference at Foothill Friday, clinching one of the greatest sports weeks in CSM history.

In that one week the Bulldogs clinched championships in cross country and soccer, as well as a share of the water polo title. Not even the Bulldog football team could spoil the record as teams in every sport won.

The Bulldog mermen's 3-2 win at Foothill puts both teams in the tie for first with 6-1 conference records. CSM is 15-4 over-all.

If you predict the game will end in a tie, place an "X" only in the column headed "Ties" between the two teams. If the game ends in a tie, credit will only be given to contestants who predict the tie.
- Write the total net yards (rushing and passing) that you think the winner will make in Sunday's game in the box provided. (This estimate will only be used in case of ties between two contestants.)
- Clip and mail the entry blank to: FOOTBALL CONTEST, The Post, 30 Park Plaza Drive, Daly City, Calif. 94015.
- Entries must be postmarked prior to midnight Thursday of this week or delivered to The Times prior to midnight Thursday of this week. The Times is not responsible for entries lost, delayed or destroyed or which fail to reach The Times by the deadline.
- To receive the cash prize the winner must pick all 15 games correctly. If the entry does not pick all games right, then the winner will receive 2 tickets to the Big Game, California vs. Stanford on November 16. The previous week's contest cash prize will be added to the next week's contest if it is not distributed to a winner. This cash prize will be given to the winner of the final week's contest if it has not been distributed before. The final week's winner will not need to guess all 15 games to win the cash prize. In case ties cannot be broken between contestants by

To qualify for the $50 bonus,

Westside Baptist Church Guest Speakers Sunday

The Rev. and Mrs. Lester Myers, directors of San Jose Rescue Mission and New Hope Home in San Jose, will be the guest speakers at the 7 p.m. Family Fellowship Gospel Hour Sunday at the Westside Baptist Church, Inverness Drive and Hickey Boulevards (Fairmont), Pacifica.

The San Jose Rescue Mission ministers to the spiritual, physical, and medical needs of unfortunate men and families in the city of San Jose.

The New Hope Home, under the supervision of Mrs. Myers, was founded to minister to the needs of unfortunate girls, and those who have no homes, and no parental supervision, referred to the home by churches, social agencies, and juvenile court.

The home also ministers to the needs of women with children, who are without visible support, and are in need of shelter and care.

At this service a free-will offering will be taken for the ministry of the Mission. Friends and members of the church are urged to bring good used clothing for men, women, children, and babies, and also coffee, soap, razor blades and sugar. These are items which are in constant demand at the mission.

Sunday morning at 9:45, 13 classes meet to meet the educational needs of all ages. There are three fine adult classes which are geared to meet the needs of adults.

"The Strength of the Church" is the topic for the 11 o'clock morning worship hour. Special music will be provided by the Male Quartette. Several laymen of the congregation will take part in this service.

During the adult service each Sunday, a primary church service is conducted for boys and girls four through seven years of age. Also during this service a nursery is maintained for babies and toddlers.

Sunday at 6:15 p.m., Junior Jet Cadets will meet, and also the primary GMG group with Mrs. Gilmore Swanson and Mrs. Lester Carlson directing the program for second and third grade girls.

A business meeting of the church will be held at this hour also, to take action regarding building plans.

The church is contemplating erection of structures on the church site on Inverness Drive, south of the San Andres School in Fairmont area for Pacifica. This site was purchased by the church in September 1966 from the Doelger Corporation.

Friday leaders of the High School CYF groups from 24 Northern California Conference Baptist Churches will gather at the Calvary Baptist Church of Lompoc for their Annual Leadership Training Conference.

Youth from Westside to attend are Juanita Fogelstrom and Marion Hillerstrom, Roger Hillerstrom and Paul Donnelly, James McLean, high school Sunday school teacher, will accompany them.

Saturday, at 8 a.m., Men's Prayer Fellowship will meet at the church parsonage, 3370 Longview Drive, San Bruno.

Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m., prayer and Bible study hour of the church is to meet at the parsonage.

On November 19 at 7 p.m., Junior GMG will meet at the home of Mrs. Betty McDaniels, 428 Glasgow, Pacifica. Mrs. James McLean, and Mrs. James Besser direct this program. Junior High GMG meets at the home of director Mrs. Barbara DeLung, 18 Eastridge Circle, (Fairmont) Pacifica.

Westside Baptist Church is affiliated with the Baptist General Conference, and holds Sunday services at the San Andres School Auditorium, Inverness Drive and Hickey Blvd., Pacifica.

JEFFERSON GRAD

WITH U.S. COMBAT AIR FORCES, Vietnam — Sergeant Thomas H. Snodgrass, son of Mrs. Doris Snodgrass, 773 Hillside Boulevard, Daly City, is on duty at Da Nang AB, Vietnam.

Sergeant Snodgrass, an aircraft pneumatic repairman, is a member of the Pacific Air Forces.

THREE PERSONS HURT — Three persons were injured—none seriously — when a Yellow Cab Company vehicle driven by William H. Kreling, 41, of Millbrae, collided with a pickup truck driven by Thomas G. Lewis, 45, of San Francisco, at the corner of Vista Grande and San Diego Avenues in Daly City last Friday. A passenger in the cab, Mrs. Clara Bell Shelby, 66 Santa Cruz Avenue, Daly City, was also injured. All three were treated at Mary's Help Hospital and released. Several neighborhood residents said they had asked for stop signs at the busy corner in the past, but so far nothing had been done by the city. So great was the force of the crash that the truck was knocked onto the sidewalk and turned over.

Dress Code Set At Capuchino Hi

Among the events which have recently gained attention on the national scene is the changing dress patterns of American youth. A reflection of this was the request by the San Mateo Union High School District Board of Education in 1967 that its administration spend a year studying the attitudes of each school in the district. Individual school committees were composed of parents, teachers, students and community leaders of diverse opinion. These committees eventually met together to recommend the grooming guides which have been adopted on a one-year experimental basis for the 1967-68 school terms.

Parents received notice of this action, the information regarding grooming expectations, in August 1968. The newest aspect of the present plan is that primary responsibility for student grooming is assumed by parents. School administrators retain their supervisory and regulatory function.

Students at Capuchino High School reacted to the district code as being less specific than they desired. The Student Council formed a Dress Code Committee which met with school administrators Andrew J. Zycki and Mrs. Mary Lee Sanz to delineate grooming expectations for Capuchino High School. The following guidelines resulted:

1. If any clothing worn by students is dirty or unkempt it will not be permitted at school.
2. Any costume-like apparel will not be permitted at school. The administration will determine what constitutes costume-like apparel.
3. Socks or stockings will be required while wearing sandals.
4. Girls may not wear short pants, but will be permitted to wear tailored denim or corduroy pants if they are clean and neat.

5. Mustaches and beards are not permissible at school, but if a student's parents wish him to have a mustache or beard and the parents follow the steps defined below, a mustache or beard will be permitted as long as it is kept trimmed and neat.

6. If a student wishes to dress in a manner which differs from the grooming code a conference between the appropriate school administrator and parents must be arranged. After the conference, if the parents still desire an exception for their child this must be stated in a written request of the administration before approval can be granted.

Capuchino Pupil Wins Scholarship

The Heinz Company scholarship recently awarded to James McCauley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCauley of 1740 Newbridge Avenue, San Mateo, is an indication of one of the many new and exciting changes in high school curriculum. The scholarship provides all of James' expenses for two years to study at the Hotel and Restaurant School of the City College of San Francisco. It is a direct outgrowth of young McCauley's studies at Capuchino High School in the F.E.A.S.T. Program (Foods Education and Services Training).

The F.E.A.S.T.-Program began three years ago as one answer to the presently great and ever-increasing need for skilled personnel in the foods and food-related industries and businesses. With less household help available for employment, more women working and increased travel, the number of people eating meals out of the home is the greatest in history. In addition, the European sources of restaurant personnel, which the U.S. has drawn on for years, have disappeared. Obviously, young people skilled in any area of food services have many opportunities open to them.

Students from any high school in the San Mateo Union High School District may attend Capuchino to study in the F.E.A.S.T. Program. Jim was a San Mateo High School student. The program is a "team effort" on the part of teachers participating in the nine nations comprising the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas, Inc. Finalist for the award will receive $2,500.

North County Soroptimists Offer Contest

Soroptimist Club of Millbrae-San Bruno has invited graduating seniors of 1969 to participate in the International Soroptimist Foundation Citizenship Award Contest with a final award of $2,500.

An y high school senior who has established a reputation for good citizenship in his home school and in community is eligible. Preliminary award of merit of a $100 savings bond will be presented by the local club to a student whose citizenship is outstanding. The winner then will be judged at the district level and forwarded to the region.

Regional citizenship award winners will vie with seniors selected in the nine nations comprising the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas, Inc. Finalist for the award will receive $2,500.

These Soroptimist Foundations Citizenship Awards are given in recognition of unselfish service in the home, school and community. Each candidate must be of good moral character and must submit substantiating evidence of worthwhile service in the home, school and from three adults. In addition, the candidate is to write a short essay, not to exceed 100 words on each subject — "My responsibility as a citizen — in the family, in the community and in the world."

Applications and rules governing the contest may be obtained from the chairman of the scholarship committee. All entries must be in the mail not later than January 31, 1969, to Mrs. Lois Williams, citizenship award chairman, P.O. Box 294, or chairman of the scholarship committee at the student's high school.

Imports A Feature At 'Boutique'

"Holiday Boutique" featuring both hand-made and imported merchandise for sale is being sponsored by the Women of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1600 Santa Lucia Avenue in San Bruno. It will be held in the downstairs social hall at the church on Wednesday, December 4.

Described by chairman, Mrs. Maurice Dee as being "more than a bazaar" the noon till 9 affair will feature an antique display by W. Antone's of San Mateo, whose objects d'art may be purchased if so desired. The antiques show will be of great interest to collectors of plates, glassware and bric-a-brac.

There will be a table of "delectable edibles" where home-made candy, breads, cakes, and cookies will be attractively packaged for holiday gift-giving.

Mrs. Richard Thomas heads a group of women who are meeting weekly at the church to prepare the various arts and crafts to be offered for sale.

The Pacifica Art Guild has agreed to show oils and water colors painted by artists living in the coastal town. These, too may be purchased, and they include seascapes, landscapes and still life themes.

Imports and gifts from Roberts and Roberts in Burlingame will be available for selection and decorative candles of various sizes and shapes are obtainable from the fully stocked candle shop.

An admission price of fifty cents will include refreshments and baby sitting. Proceeds from the "Holiday Boutique" will be used to defray expenses of the recent remodeling undertaken by the church.

Mrs. E. N. Nelson and Mrs. Edwin R. Hawkins are assisting Mrs. Dee in cataloging the merchandise. Other committee workers include: Mrs. James Tschanner, Mrs. Richard Hammel, Mrs. Clyde Osborne, Mrs. John Salver and Mrs. Alfred Stickney.

Bike Rider Badly Hurt

A South San Francisco youth was hospitalized with a skull fracture and other injuries Sunday when his bicycle collided with an automobile at the intersection of Hillside Boulevard and Lincoln Avenue, police reported.

Twelve-year-old Dennis L. Murphy, of 824 Larch Avenue, was injured at 3:25 p.m. when he collided with a car driven by Francis Murray, 66, of San Francisco.
